Child, 8, Accuses Neighbor—Dorothy Cransten, 8, of Center st., West Roxbury, in the same bed from which she was taken by a prowler and carried to her yard and mistreated, tells Special Officers Edward Weiler and (right) Henry M. Coughlin the name of her attacker, whom she identified as a 32-year-old neighbor. The child, who was alone in the house at the time of the assault, was bruised and fever-ridden today as a result of her ordeal. The man she named is being held.

Brewster Hits Back at Hughes

By WILLIAM THEIS

WASHINGTON, July 28 (INS) — The Senate war investigating committee opened its inquiry into Howard Hughes' wartime aircraft contracts today, and Chairman Brewster (R.) of Maine immediately answered charges that he had accepted free airplane rides from Hughes. As the hearings began, Hughes' Washington representatives announced that the millionaire airman's "right-hand man," the elusive John W. Meyer, would appear voluntarily to testify before the committee.

WAITS TO TESTIFY—Doris Lilly, who allegedly attended parties thrown by Howard Hughes, is scheduled to appear before the Senate investigating committee under summons. She was about to sail for Europe when her passport was canceled.

Brewster, replying to an "open letter" in which Hughes asserted that the Senator had accepted $1400 worth of free air transportation, said he did so at Hughes' own request.

The Senator said Hughes asked him to go from Washington to Kansas City for a conference and "proposed" plane transportation to make it possible for Brewster to keep speaking dates later in West Virginia and Ohio.

HOSTESS SAYS "NO"

Brewster charged sensationally that Hughes "tried to get" a pretty airline hostess to fly with the Senator and the handsome bachelor airman to Columbus.

The Senator asserted that the girl "absolutely refused because seh said she didn't care to ride with Hughes alone."

Brewster explained that he was in Kansas City about the time of Lincoln's Birthday and that Hughes phoned him and asked if he could meet him in Washington.

The Senator said he told Hughes that he had to be in both West Virginia and Columbus, O., to keep speaking engagements and couldn't make flying connections.

"He said, 'If you'll come to Washington I'll fly you to those places,'" Brewster declared. "So I bought my own TWA ticket and flew back to Washington. I spent taht Monday (the next day) with Hughes in Washington. Jack Frye's executive plane flew me to West Virginia and returned Monday night. (Frye at that time was president of TWA.)"

George Curley Still Very Weak

George J. Curley, the mayor's 28-year-old so, is "very weak" but fighting to recover from an emergency operation at Cohasset Hospital, his sister, Mary Curley Donnelly, said today.

"I was allowed only two minutes with him yesterday and I don't know what will be allowed today," she added.

The hospital reported his condition today as unchanged and still critical.

Seized in 'Babes In Wood' Slayings

LONDON, July 28 (INS)—Frederick Alfred Smith, 21-year-old window cleaner, was arrested today in connection with the brutal "babes in the wood" slaying of two small children.

Smith was taken into custody after a nightlong search aided by 300 countryfolk armed with crowbars and pickaxe handles.

SWIMS IRISH SEA

PORT PATRICK, Scotland, July 28 (AP)—Tom Blower, 33-year-old machinist, claimed the first successful swim across the Irish sea's treacherous north channel today after completing the 25 miles in the unofficial time of 16 hours, 9 minutes.

Blower swam the English Channel 10 years ago in 13 hours, 25 minutes—second fastest time recorded for the feat.

War Contracts Investigators Study Roosevelt Letters

Hughes Dares Brewster To 'Tell All' in Plane Quiz

Howard Hughes is writing a series of articles telling his own story for the first time since a Senate committee opened investigation into war contracts and entertainment lavished on Elliott Roosevelt, Interior Sec. J. A. Krug and other important political figures by the plane builder. The first of Hughes' own articles—in the form of an open letter to Sen. Owen Brewster (R.) of Maine, chairman of the war investigating committee, follows:

By HOWARD HUGHES

Copyright, 1947, by Los Angeles Examiner

Dear Sen. Brewster: While you are telling, why don't you tell all?

Why don't you tell about the time you invited me to lunch in your suite at the Mayflower Hotel and the proposition you put to me?

Why don't you tell about the flight Juan Trippe made to the Coast to see me, and the two-day conference we had? (April 12 and 13, 1947.) Why don't you tell what we were talking about?

And, incidentally, since you think it is so horrible for anyone to accept my hospitality, why don't you tell about the $1400 worth of airplane trips which you requested and accepted from me? (February 10 and 11, 1947.)

You know, Senator, if you hadn't gone too far overboard, I might have been willing to take a certain shellacking in this publicity spree of yours.

CHOOSES OWN GUESTS

Yes, I might have been willing to sit back and take a certain amount of abuse simply because I am only a private citizen, while you are a senator with all sorts of rights and powers to subpoena me, make me drop my work, and travel 2500 miles back there to Washington, and otherwise cause me no end of inconvenience.

So I sat back and let you do the talking for five days. But one thing you said, which just appeared in the papers, sort of stuck in my mind.

You said that I asked you to send someone out here to check through my books. Now, you know, that statement is true. I did make that request, because I have nothing to hide and I have done nothing I am ashamed of.

I am sorry if certain men are embarrassed because they have been entertained by me. But if they are embarrassed, that's because they are in politics, and politics is a strange game.

However, I am not a politician. I am just an ordinary citizen. I entertain whomever I please. There is no law against it.

I worked pretty hard for what money I have, and I didn't make it from the government—and I didn't make it from airplanes.

All in all, in my transactions with the government I have made NO PROFIT WHATSOEVER.

LOST $14,000,000

Furthermore, I and my companies have paid taxes to the government totaling $25,000,000. And I have paid salaries to employes totaling $300,000,000.

As far as the airplane business is concerned, I have been in it 13 years and this is the result: I HAVE LOST $14,000,000.

So I don't think I have been defrauding the government Nevertheless, in other fields of endeavor, I have made a little money, and since I am just an ordinary citizen with the same rights as the next man, I entertain whom I please. As I said, there is no law against it.

Now, Senator, to get back to your statement, you also said that I telephoned you in Kansas City and told you to make this investigation of my airplane projects. Well, Senator, that's pretty nearly true. I did tell you to go ahead with the investigation, because I was not afraid of it and I had been threatened long enough.

WHEN WAS QUIZ BORN?

But, Senator, since you are telling that much, why give the impression that the investigation was initiated on that day?

Why not tell the whole truth?

Why not tell that this investigation was really born on the day that TWA (Trans World Airline) first flew the Atlantic? On the day when TWA first invaded Juan Trippe's territory—on the day when TWA first challenged the generally accepted theory that only Juan Trippe's great Pan-American Airways had the sacred right to fly the Atlantic?

And why not tell about the day you invited me to lunch in your suite at the Mayflower Hotel? (During the week of Feb. 10, 1947.)

And why not tell about the things you said to me and the proposition you put to me?

And why not tell about my answer: That I would have to think it over for 30 days, and that I would let Mr. Trippe know at the end of that time?

'BUMMED' TWO AIR TRIPS

And why not tell about Mr. Trippe's flight to the Coast to see me, and how Mr. Trippe and Mr. Dietrich and I spent two days closeted in conference at Palm Springs, Cal.? (Apr. 12 and 13, 1947). And why not tell what we were talking about for those two days?

And while you are at it, Senator, why not tell about the two airplane trips you bummed off of me?

Yes, since you now claim it is so reprehensible and horrible for anyone to accept my hospitality, don't you feel just a little tainted when you realize that you specifically requested from me and accepted $1400 worth of airplane transportation—consisting of a round trip in a luxurious private airplane from Washington, D. C., to Morgantown, W. Va., on Feb. 10, 1947, and a second round trip from Washington, D. C., to Columbus, O., on Feb. 11?

Yes, senator, the regular charter price for those flights is $1400. But you didn't pay anything for them, did you?

Sincerely,
Howard Hughes.

Late Night Date Clue to Heiress

By DONALD MacPHAIL

HOLDERNESS, N. H., July 28—A midnight rendezvous on the shores of Little Squam Lake—strong evidence that 20-year-old Ann Straw may have eloped—was revealed today in the most startling break yet uncovered in the search for the missing heiress.

It was learned that on the very spot where Anne's bathing suit and flashlight were later found, and at the very hour when she walked out of her summer home, a small boat operating without lights was guided to shore by the blinking signals of a flashlight.

This information has been in the hands of authorities conducting a week-long search for the Smith College senior for several days but has been carefully kept secret until now.

Police have previously announced that Anne was heard leaving the luxurious lodge of her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Ellis Straw, about 11:30 p. m. last Monday. Discovery of her one-piece white bathing suit and flashlight on a point of rocky land some 500 yards from the Straw home was also made known.

The new information, linking these vital clues, was obtained from a Newton, Mass., resident, Salvatore Simeone of Thornton st., who was vacationing at Little Squam lake with his family. His cottage is a few hundred feet from the rocky point on either side from the Straw lodge.

HEARD BOAT COME IN

Simeone was lying in bed, tossing restlessly and unable to sleep, last Monday night, and later told police the following account, it was learned:

"I could hear this voice coming across over the water, and it said, 'This is the point we are looking for. There is the blinking light. The North Star is right over those trees. Take it easy, now.'

"These brief sentences were strung out over a space of, perhaps a minute, and I could hear them plainly. But when I looked out on the lake I could see nothing. The voice was that of a man.

"I got out of bed and in the darkness could see only the faint outlines of a small boat and somebody was moving in it. I am sure there was no motor used. It looked like a small rowboat. I could not see any flashing lights.

"It was very quiet then, and I guessed the boat carried a party of fishermen coming home. So I forgot all about it until after the news came out about the Straw girl being missing."

Investigators are now working on the theory, it was learned, that the bathing suit and flashlight were left behind by Anne accidentally in the hurry to get away in the small rowboat.

INTENDED TO SWIM OUT

The belief is that the girl carried the bathing suit intending to put it on and swim out to the boat in the event the boatman was unable to guide it to the shore through the boulders in shallow water.

The flashlight, it is now believed, was used as first supposed to send flashing guidance to the contact boat. It was left behind with the suit, it is thought, when the young heiress hastily and silently slipped into the rowboat and was carried away to a place as yet undetermined.

As a result of this development, an intensive search was begun today for the person manning the rowboat. It is thought certain the boat was rented as part of the equipment at a summer camp on Little Squam or Big Squam Lake.

Camp owners are being asked for names of persons who rented for the week of July 13 to 20, or

Framingham Store Bandit Captured

FRAMINGHAM, July 28 — A quick-witted chain store manager and an agile customer teamed up today to foil a holdup in a supermarket and capture a 27-year-old New Bedford man.

Shortly after the Waverly st. market had been opened for business, the bandit told Pearl White, Marlboro, the bookkeeper, he wanted to se the manager. She led him to the back office where Charles R. Shagoury, Main st., Clinton, was checking invoices.

"I'm a special investigator for the store," said the bandit. Shagoury asked for credentials.

"These are my credentials," was the reply as the bandit pulled a .45 from his back pocket. "I want your money."

On the way out front, the bandit replaced the gun in his pocket. At a display of caned goods, Shagoury shoved the bandt into the display, which came tumbling down.

While Ehagoury wrestled with the bandit, Dominic Bellora, Clark st., Framingham, slipped the gun from the pocket.

At the station, the man said he was a former resident of Framingham who had moved recently to New Bedford. He was booked for attempted armed robbery.

West Roxbury Girl, 8, Identifies Attacker

Eight-year-old Dorothy Cransten of Center st., West Roxbury, bruised and fever-ridden as the result of an ordeal at the hands of a bedroom prowler early yesterday morning, named her attacker today to police at her home shortly after he had denied guilt in the lineup.

The child, who was under medical care, her temperature at 102 and her head in ice packs, identified him as a 32-year-old filling station attendant who had been picked up a few hours before.

Frmo the same bed from which the prowler took her, with Special Officers Henry M. Coughlin and Edward Weiler listening, she told what happened in the early morning dark while her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cransten, were not at home:

"I felt someone wake me. At first I thought it was Daddy but I couldn't see. Then I heard his voice and I knew it wasn't Daddy. He said, 'Be quiet now and don't make any noise or you'll get hurt.' Then he said, 'Wait a minute' and put something over my head and said, 'I won't hurt you.'

"He took me outside in the yard and held me. He kept saying, 'Don't make any noise' and 'I won't hurt you' but he did hurt me. I was crying easy. I didn't dare to cry loud because of what he said.

"I knew who he was because of his size and clothes. When he held me, I put my hands up to his neck to scratch him but my fingernails were too short. His neck was greasy."

Here she named the man again and added, "His neck always looks greasy."

Police had intended to have Dorothy come to the station, where the man in custody was to have been placed in a lineup with others, to see if she could pick him out, but her condition precluded it.

They planned to bring him to her bedside if the family physician consents.

Although the girl was not criminally attacked she was bruised from shoulder to thigh. In taking her from the house the prowler had removed her her pajamas and wrapped her in a bedsheet.

Despite her story, police are still investigating. They revealed the man in custody is not the only suspect.

Hot Political Issues Go Over For Congress Battles in '48

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—Sign posts pointing toward teamwork with the White House on world affairs, slugging matches on domestic problems and hot 1948 election issues stand out along the rough road the 80th Congress traveled to its own halfway mark.

The first session crashed to a close in Sunday's early hours.

Adjournment until January—unless President Truman or Republican leaders call an emergency session sooner—shot off a raucous, roaring political scrap in the Senate and a back-slapping, rollicking songfest in the House.

Weary members now are beating a path back home to find out what the people think of this first "streamlined" Congress, this first Republican-controlled Congress in a decade and a half.

The grass roots reaction is important. Top issues already are shaping up for next year's electioneering for a President, all 435 House members and 32 of the 96 Senators. For instance:

There are taxes nad labor, the high cost of living and the high cost of government.

LEFTOVERS FOR 1948

And there are enough legislative leftovers for the next session to concoct a sizable dish of political controversies.

Held on the hook until next winter were such measures as universal military training, long-range housing, military co-operation with Latin America, a minimum wage boost for the lowest paid interstate workers and loyalty checks on government workers.

It was a political battle royal in the Senate that kept Congress on the job on a Sabbath for the first time since 1929.

Democrats had succeeded in blocking a Republican bid for a full-scale invetsigation into Atty.-Gen. Clark's handling of vote fraud charges in Kansas City.

Sen. Brewster (R.) of Maine, tried to get even by preventing approval of the nomination of Philip B. Pearlman of Baltimore to be solicitor general, a top-rank spot under Clark.

Tempers were raw and faces flushed after Sen. Ferguson (R.), of Michigan, complained that Democrats had filibustered against the vote fraud inquiry and Sen. Connally (D.) of Texas, came back with an angry reply.

ADJOURNMENT DELAYED

Brewster finally gave up. The Senate confirmed Perlman 58 to 21 and adjourned at 3:49 a. m. (2:49 a. m. E. S. T.).

In the House, members had finished a final fling of Republican-Democratic bickering over economy around 9 p. m. Saturday.

So, arms around shoulders, they gave way to close harmony—of the barbershop variety. Shortly after midnight they voted to go home.

Mrs. Truman Rites Limited To Family

GRANDVIEW, Mo., July 28 (AP)—Mrs. Martha Ellen Truman, daughter of a Missouri pioneer farmer and mother of the nation's President, will be buried this afternoon on a shaded knoll in Kansas City—the town where she was born 94 years ago.

The ceremony will be simple and private, as the mother and her devoted son, Harry S. Truman, had previously agreed. The funeral services in Mrs. Truman's plainly furnished living room will be for the family alone.

Only three or four cars will follow Mrs. Truman's cortege on its 17-mile trip to Forest Hill Cemetery from the little cottage on dusty, unpaved Feland ave. in Grandview, near the Frisco railroad tracks.

It was in Grandview the President spent 12 days away from the world's highest office in May because his mother had a sinking spell; there he was bound Saturday when word of her heart's failure overtook him in the presidential plane.

Forest Hill Cemetery made ready grave 8 in block 43, lot 85. In the same lot rests John Anderson Truman the President's father. The location is the top of a rolling hill, under maples, elms and oaks. John Truman was buried there Nov. 4, 1914.

The Truman sorrow, though more than a family affair, was sheltered from the curious by Secret Service men, State and local police who blockaded roads for two blocks around the frame house.

Jury Sees Photos In Yacht Murder

SANTA ANA, Cal., July 28 (AP)—William W. Harper, Pasadena criminologist, was recalled to the witness stand in the Overell yacht blast murder trial today as the State tried to show with photomicrographs that splintered pieces of planking from the power cruiser of Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Overell were flecked with small bits of their flesh.

The couple's daughter, Louise, heiress to their $600,000 estate, and her college sweetheart, George (Bud) Gollum, are charged with their murder.

Prosecutor Eugene Williams said Harper would be followed to the stand by Clark Sellers, handwriting expert.

Firemen Badly Hurt In El Car, Truck Jam

Two firemen were in serious condition at City Hospital today and 15 other persons were under treatment for injuries following the collision of a ladder truck and a crowded Boston El car at Bennington and Marion sts., East Boston.

Three passengers, James Kelley, 48, of Warland st., Cambridge, and his two children, Patrick, 11, and Sheila, 8, were taken to East Boston Relief Hospital.

Ladderman John J. Walsh, 26, of Church st., Dorchester, suffered a fractured hip and was trapped several minutes in the wreckage before fellow firemen lifted him to safety. The other hospital patient is William Walsh, Jr., 26, of Leroy st., Dorchester, also a ladderman, who suffered a possible brain concussion and broken ankle.

Other firemen injured were Theodore Brown, 22, of Harrison ave., South End, cuts and bruises; and David Lang of Barnes ave., East Boston, and Edward Lynch of Neptune rd., East Boston, who received minor injuries.

The collision occurred about 3 p. m. as Ladder 2 was responding to an alarm for a small blaze on Saratoga st., caused when someone threw a cigaret butt on an awning.

Carl Trischetta, 35, of Everett st., Everett, motorman, said the truck dashed across in front of his car without warning. He said he was going at a speed of three miles an hour when the car hit the truck.

The impact knocked the body of the truck on to the sidewalk, flinging the two Walshes to the street. As they lay unconscious waiting for an ambulance, Rev. Walter F. O'Donnell of nearby Sacred Heart Church administered the last rites.

More than 1000 residents of the neighborhod gathered at the scene and traffic on the Elevated line was held up for an hour and twenty minutes.

At City Hospital, the condition of the Walshes was reported as serious and both were placed on the danger list.

Film Fans to Judge 'The Long Night' Killer

In a mock trial as thrilling as the most dramatic murder trials on record, a vast public—theatergoers and radio listeners—will sit as the jury to determine the life or death of the film hero of a gripping screen presentation: "The Long Night," and decide his guilt or innocence on a charge of first degree murder.

This vivid and moving film opens Aug. 6, at RKO Memorial Theater, and the mock trial will be held on the stage of Symphony Hall on Wednesday night, Aug. 13, with all the tense drama of an actual murder trial.

Tickets for this mock trial, which will be presented with all the color and acclaim of a big Hollywood premiere, go on sale July 30 at Symphony Hall, and will range in price from $1 to $3, the entire proceeds to be donated to the Children's Hospital.

A real judge will preside at the trial, two famed and brilliant criminal lawyers will act as defense and prosecuting counsel, and famed film stars will testify as defendant and witnesses. Spectators and radio listeners will be the jury.

Floodlights will illumine the streets in front of Symphony Hall on the night of the trial and movies of players and spectators will be made during the performance.

The trial will be broadcast a full hour from 8 to 9 p. m. over the Yankee Network, in the largest world area premiere ever known to the movie industry. The radio presentation is produced by Don Thompson with a cast of radio players from New York.

Atty. Herbert Callahan, famed Boston lawyer who recently and successfully defended Charles Russell Goodale of Onset against a charge of first degree murder, will be counsel for the defense. Judge Thomas J. Courtney of Chicago will be the prosecutor, summing up the state's evidence against the defendant—evidence presented by players enacting their own roles in "The Long Night." The name of the presiding judge will be announced later.

Enacting the dramatic role as the defendant, "Joe Adams," will be Guy Madison, popular young film star. The role in the picture, which opens Aug. 6 in more than 338 theaters in New England and upper New York State, is played by Henry Fonda, now making a film in Hollywood. The heroine role of "Jo Ann," the girl loved by grief-stricken defendant, will be enacted by Jacqueline White in place of Barbara Bel Geddes in the film, while Ann Dvorak, a star in "The Long Night," will re-create her own role.

The film is produced by Robert and Raymond Hakim and directed by Anatol Litvak. It was originally made in France with Jean Gabin as star and entitled: "Time To Kill."

Dying Cambridge Mother Hopes to See Marine Sons

Two Cambridge brothers, serving with the Marines on opposite sides of the world, were anxiously awaited by their family today as they sought to reach the bedside of their mother, critically ill at Cambridge City Hospital of a mysterious ailment.

The Cambridge Red Cross reported it had been informed Sgt. Leo "Buddy" Donovan, 26, had left Guam by plane and might arrive late today or tomorrow to see his mother, Mrs. Julia Donovan, 54, who is being kept alive in an oxygen tent at the hospital.

ONE SON IN GREECE

Her other son, PFC Richard J. Donovan, 18, serving in Greece, was a more doubtful arrival today. The last word received by the Red Cross was a cable from his commanding officer that an effort would be made to obtain air transportation for him.

Whether he has started yet is not known.

At the hospital today the mother's condition was reported as "very, very poor" by attaches.

Constantly at the mother's bedside and awaiting their arrival are two other sons, Robert, 22, an Army veteran, and Gerald, 15. Also her husband, Daniel J. Donovan of Clifton st., Cambridge, disabled veteran of World War I.

Ill of a "mystery" ailment, Mrs. Donovan was rushed to Cambridge City Hospital on July 16, and her name has been constantly on the danger list.

LIFE HANGS BY THREAD

"She is only clinging to life by a thread," a hospital spokesman said. "We are amazed that she has stayed alive this long."

Members of her family say that her fatal illness can be traced to an automobile accident in which she was injured a year ago and which caused her hospitalization for more than three months immediately afterward.

Paratroopers Wiped Out By Indonesians

BATAVIA, Java, July 28 (AP)—Dutch military headquarters announced today sweeping new successes in eastern Sumatra, reporting the capture virtually intact of vital coal and oil regions more than 100 miles from the jumping-off point of Dutch troops at Palembang.

The advances were announced as the Netherlands navy ordered the Java ports of Cheribon, Probolinggo and Banjoewangi opened immediately to normal trade in an effort to get great stores of captured raw materials moving to world markets.

(An Indonesian communique issued in Jogjakarta today reported that the Dutch had brought paratroopers into play for the first time in an effort to capture Lamadjang, a small village 20 miles south of Bandoeng, but declared the paratroopers had been wiped out.)

In two separate communiques, the Dutch announced that they had captured the rich Sumatra oilfield town of Batoeradja, 80 miles southwest of Palembang, and the important Boekit Assam coal mines, 20 miles further to the southwest.

In western Java steel-helmeted Dutch troops thrust methodically south to Pengalengan, 18 miles south of Bandoeng and only 20 miles from the south coast of the island.

British Nab 2 More Vessels, 1100 Jews

HAIFA, July 28 (AP)—British naval forces escorted into Haifa Harbor today two small wooden vessels jammed with approximately 1100 uncertified Jewish immigrants and immediately transferred most of them to waiting British ships for deportation to Cyprus.

Both refugee ships were sponsored by Haganah, Jewish underground organization, in a new campaign to smash the British blockade barring Jewish immigration to the Holy Land.

Their arrival followed by little more than a week the interception of the 7000-ton steamer President Warfield, whose 4500 Jewish passengers are now aboard three British ships en route back to their point of departure in southern France.

FLEW ZION FLAG

The first ship to arrive today was the 300-ton motor-powered Return to Zion—originally named the Luciana—loaded with 396 immigrants who a Jewish source said had come from a North African port. The vessel carried a sign reading "Haganah Ship" and flew the Zion flag.

Her passengers, who included 122 children and 71 women, were transferred quickly to British deportation ships, singing the Hatikvah—national Jewish anthem—as they walked the necessary 100 yards along the pier.

Four men and a woman, the first passengers to be removed, refused to budge and were carried off by troops of the British sixth airborne division. The remainder of the immigrants made the transfer from ship-to-ship without resistance.

REFUGEES IN RAGS

Two ill men and five women were taken to a government hospital.

Most of the passengers, said to be chiefly Oriental Jews, were young and most were in rags. Many were barefooted.

The second ship to arrive was the three-masted schooner Bruno of Rome, which had been renamed The 14 Heroes of Ez Zib in memory of the members of the Jewish underground who died while blowing up a bridge last year near the Lebanon border.

Towed into port with disabled engines two hours after the arrival of the Return to Zion, she was unloaded without incident.

Of the total of 1100 persons carried by the two ships approximately 300 were detained temporarily in Haifa pending the arrival of additional British transports for the voyage to Cyprus.

British officials at the dock said neither ship resisted when naval forces boarded them in Palestine waters.

Plague Perils Jews On Deportation Ships

LONDON, July 28 (INS)—The London Daily Telegraph reported today that more than 500 of the 4500 Jewish immigrants being returned to France from Palestine aboard three British ships are sick and are believed to have bubonic plague.

A spokesman for the Marseilles port authority was quoted as the source of this information.

Preparations are being made to accommodate 1500 other refugees at the automobile racing track at Miramus, while 1000 more will be housed in a former American Army camp at Calais, the paper said.

LIFETIME STREET CAR PASS

COPENHAGEN, July 28 (AP)—The Copenhagen Tramway Co. issued a lifetime pass today to the one-day-old son of Lt. and Mrs. K. Olsen of Copenhagen. The child was born on one of the company's street cars.

2 Seized In Kidnap Robbery

FALL RIVER, July 28—Two Fall River men were arrested this forenoon, charged with armed robbery, kidnaping and larceny of a taxicab, several hours after a masked trio staged a $370 robbery from a cafe proprietor, who was abducted, with a taxi driver, and dumped in Tiverton, R. I.

In custody are Louis Senay of Lonsdale st. and Kenneth Murphy of the Irvington Hotel. Both confessed and identified the third bandit, police said. The third man is being sought.

GUNS FOUND

The officers said they found three guns at Senay's home and recovered more than half of the holdup money.

During the kidnap ride, one of the bandits disclosed they had been tipped off that the cafe manager had more than $5000 in his possession.

Shortly after 2 o'clock, Edward Santos, 28, taxi driver, of Power st., picked up Arthur Doyle, 50, manager of the Dairyland Cafe, who asked to be driven to his home in Haffard st.

Santos told police that outside the house, the three hooded men approached, ordered him back into the driver's seat and demanded Doyle turn over $5000.

Doyle said he replied "Where am I going to get $5000 in these times?"

"We were tipped off you had it with you, so hand it over," one of the bandits replied.

HAND OVER MONEY

When Doyle finally convinced the trio he had no such amount with him, he was forced to hand over $105 in bills from his wallet and $250 and and a check for $5 from another pocket.

After taping his wrists together, Doyle was thrown into the rear of the taxi, two of the bandits getting into the rear seat. The third bandit sat beside Santos and directed him during the drive to Tiverton.

When they arrived in the Fish rd. section of Tiverton, Santos was similarly taped, and he and Doyle were left by the roadside as the bandits fled in the taxi.

West Newton Man Dies Under Train

FRAMINGHAM, July 28 (AP)—Robert J. Devlin, 27, of 1001 Watertown st., West Newton, died today at Union Hospital from injuries suffered when, police said, he apparently slipped under the wheels of a Boston & Albany train.

Devlin, a World War II veteran, missed his grip as he tried to jump aboard a moving Springfield-bound train pulling out of Framingham station.

State A.F.L. Head Sees Plot for Depression

SPRINGFIELD, July 28 (INS)—President John J. Delmonte of the Massachusetts State Federation of Labor called upon 800 delegates to the 61st annual convention today to fight "the forces of reaction in this critical period of our history."

In his opening address he said enemies of labor are behind future repressive legislation, aimed at higher spiraling of prices and at a major depression while blaming labor "for their own greed and stupidity."

He attacked legislation adopted in Massachusetts, including the so-called Barnes Bill and the Slichter committee report. Delmonte continued:

"But while overshadowing these State efforts at enslaving labor, the Taft-Hartley calamity yet falls into the same pattern.

Bad bills cannot be made good laws merely by enactment.

"This most malignant piece of legislation is the result of a false-engineered bitterness turned into a low that adds nothing to the solution of a program, but only worsens the atmosphere in which responsible parties are working for fair termination of particular economic differences.

"Such is the work only of the lunatic fringe in our midst whom the majority of our people through misfortune have elected to represent them."

Plan to Replace Burned Club At Hatherly

Plans for rebuilding Hatherly Golf Club in North Scituate, destroyed in an early morning fire with damage estimated at $100,000, will be discussed at an emergency meeting of club members to be held shortly, it was announced today by Donald H. Whittemore, club president.

The 48-year-old structure was found ablaze several hours after a dance was held there, and firemen from Scituate and surrounding communities were unable to check the swiftly spreading flames.

Seven persons sleeping on the ground floor of the two-story building escaped without injury when Mrs. Dorothy Igoe, 25, wife of the club's golf professional, was awakened by a chair rocking in the high wind.

She discovered the fire and aroused her husband, John, their children, Joan, 9, Mary Ellen, 5, and Catherine, 2, and her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Igoe.

Destroyed in the blaze were valuable trophies accumulated by the club as well as 150 sets of golf clubs, and a roll of $500 in bills collected from the dancers.

Boy, 15, Throws Big Party As Son of Howard Hughes

CHICAGO, July 28 (INS) — With Congress so interested in the Hollywood parties thrown by millionaire Howard Hughes, a 15-year-old high school boy, Glen Cordes, seized the opportunity to throw a lavish party for two high school chums.

The whole thing wound up with Glen's parents promising to make good bills for a hotel suite and livery service, and hotel employes very red-faced because they didn't remember Hughes is unmarried.

Young Cordes appeared at the hotel, identified himself as Hughes' son and was given penthouse rooms at $40 a day. Later, a private motor livery service was told to pick up Hughes' "son" at a Lake Shore drive address, the call purportedly coming from Hughes. Cordes and his two companions were returned to the hotel in style, where they ordered steak dinners for six, with champagne.

The wine bill was $44.50, steaks $30.

The managing director of the hotel became suspicious and Cordes, a high school sophomore, admitted engineering the hoax.

"I only wanted to have a lot of fun and a big party," he said.

Police let Glen go home with his parents, but ordered him to see a juvenile officer tomorrow.

Feared Fencing In, Kills Son, Hurts 2

MAPLEWOOD, N. J., July 28 (AP)—Police posted a guard today at the hospital bed of F. F. Dieter, 76, retired jeweler who, had signed a statement saying he had shot and killed his son and seriously wounded his wife, daughter-in-law and dog because he was certain his family's privacy and comfort were nearing an end because a new apartment was "fencing in" his home.

Dieter himself suffered bullet wounds in the head and right hand, the first being the result of what police said was a side attempt and the second the climax of a 20-minute Sunday morning gun duel in which his weapon was shot from his grip. Capt. Dowd said he came out in from the cellar of his home shouting, "Don't hurt me. I'm an old man."

Dieter's statement to how he had brooded over the construction of a 130-unit garden-type apartment project next to his home, believing the new dwelling would ruin the house and garden that he had nurtured for three decades. He was certain sewage from the apartments would backup into his own pipes and that the new grading would result in the flooding of his own cellar.

Taxi Man Held Up on Grigg St.

Bernard Snetsky, 12 Wellington Hill st., Dorchester, a Boston taxi cab driver, was held up at gunpoint yesterday by a colored youth who robbed him of $13 on Grigg st., Cambridge.

Snetsky told police he picked up the dapper-dressed youth with a small moustache at Massachusetts ave. and Washington st., Boston, who requested to be taken to Grigg st.

As he stopped the cab, near the Community Center, Snetsky said the man brandished an automatic pistol and demanded his money. He said he gave the bandit $10 in bills and the remainder in change.

The gunman then opened the cab door and fled on foot towards Howard st., disappearing into the darkness, according to the cabbie.

The robber was described as 17 or 18 years of age, 5 feet 4 inches tall, weighing 150 pounds and wearing a brown suede jacket and straw hat.

Somerville Tax Rate $43.90, Up $1.40

Somerville's tax rate for 1947 has been increased $1.40 to $43.90, according to an announcement today by the board of assessors. The increase from last year's figure of $42.50 makes the rate the same as in 1938, but not as high as the $44.30 per $1000 of valuation charged in 1937.

Dogs Renew Hunt For Missing Wife

EPPING, N. H., July 28—Bloodhounds took to the trail again today and led a posse of volunteers searching for Mrs. Libby Ferrin, 60, missing from her mountain home for three days and feared to have collapsed during a hike through woodlands.

The dogs, loaned by Rhode Island State Police, failed to pick up a scent in their first day's search and were sent into another part of the three square mile area in which the woman is believed lying sick and unable to move.

Her husband, James, is in charge of the fire lookout station on Pawtuckaway Mountain and their home is at the mountain's base. Ferrin said his wife is in the habit of taking walks through the woods and that he saw her from his station Friday noon, hiking on Middle Mountain nearby.

Zing, comes the swing to your sweetheart

HOW'S that Buick sweetheart of yours? Still giving out with that eager Fireball power surge at a toe-touch? Still answering every light finger-touch on the wheel?

Most likely you'll answer, "It's doing very nicely, thank you." But years have a way of whittling away at performance—sometimes so slowly you don't notice it.

So you can be in for a whopping surprise.

Just wheel your car into our shop and treat it to some real Buick care. The kind of care that comes from men who are truly fond of Buicks—who know what they can do and like to bring out all their oomph and go.

Let these men of ours test and tune your Buick with their special Buick tools. Let them replace anything that's worn with the right Buick-engineered part. Then, ZING, back comes the swing to your sweetheart.

Job for job, Buick car care costs no more than ordinary service. So, what's to lose? Come in to us whether it's for a tune-up, major or minor repair or regular lubrication. Your car rates it.

GEOMETRY? Ugh! But here it means Extra Comfort

Buicks take turns without swing or sway. This means more comfort and less fatigue every mile you travel. And you can credit that to the geometry of Buick front-wheel suspension.

The wheels are designed to bank slightly on curves—the inside wheel turns a degree or two sharper than the outside one. And they're hung at an angle that lets them give slightly to cushion road shocks.

So good Buick front-wheel service is a job for men who know Buick front-wheel action—who have Buick-approved checking equipment—who have at hand any needed Buick-engineered parts.

Another example of why Buick care keeps Buicks best. Whether it's for wheel alignment or any other attention, take your car to your Buick dealer. We'll show you the difference between ordinary service and Buick car care.

R. I. Youth Sought In Attack Case

WALPOLE, July 28—While Mrs. Lena McPherson, 23, remained confined to her bed in her home in Main st., under the care of a physician, Rhode Island State Police were enlisted today in the search for the husky youth who tried to assault her as she walked to church.

That her assailant is a resident of Rhode Island was evidenced by the young housewife's story that she was slapped and punched by a man who was driving alone in an auto bearing Rhode Island number plates.

She is the wife of Pvt. Kenneth McPherson, and mother of a 2-year-old daughter. Her husband, home on leave from his Army post in New York City, was minding the baby while she walked to church along a desolate stretch of Main st. in the rear of Norfolk Prison Colony.

She said the auto halted just in front of her and the driver seized her and tried to force her to the ground. She exchanged punches with him and kicked until she brake away.

Her clothing torn and hysterical with fear, she raced several hundred yards to the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Budge

Experience is the Best Teacher!

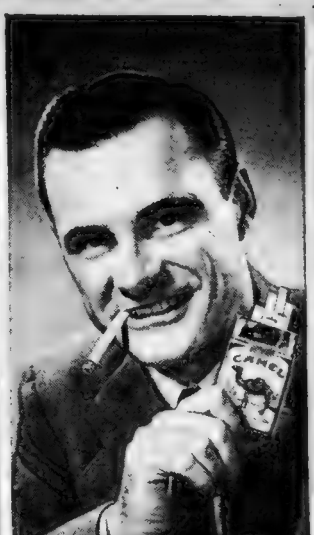
Remember all the different brands you smoked during the wartime cigarette shortage? That's when so many people discovered the milder, more flavorful pleasure there is in Camel's choice, properly aged tobaccos.

It was no fun!

But that wartime cigarette scarcity was a revealing experience to smokers . . . taught millions that cigarettes of different brands are not alike . . . that there are big differences in taste, coolness, mildness.

What Brand?

In those days of the wartime shortage, you took whatever brand you could get . . . a different brand every day. Naturally, people compared brands . . . for taste . . . for throat . . . for real smoking pleasure.



Choice of Experience

Even people who had never thought of changing brands tried Camels during the shortage. That's how more and more smokers learned that Camels suited them best. That's why . . .

MORE PEOPLE ARE SMOKING CAMELS

than ever before!

Vet's Mother, Girl Drown in Boat Upset

EAST CHICAGO, Ind., July 28 (INS) — The mother and the sweetheart of Robert Mathis, 21, were drowned when a motorboat in which he had taken the two riding overturned in Lake Michigan near the Indiana Harbor breakwater.

The victims were Mrs. Elizabeth Mathis, 46, and Miss Jean Miller, 21, both of East Chicago. Young Mathis, thinking Miss Miller would be able to swim, grasped his mother while two men rowed to the scene in a boat and brought her to shore. Efforts to revive her were unsuccessful.

EAT OR DRINK

TOKYO, July 28 (AP)—Residents of Japan's six major cities were given a choice today between eating and drinking.

The Japanese government's latest regulation for distribution of sake (rice wine) provides that drinkers must forfeit approximately three-days' rice ration to obtain a quart of the wine. It applies to Tokyo, Yokohama, Nagoya, Osaka, Kobe and Kyoto.

Previously, slightly more than one pint of sake was available monthly for each male over 21 years. Notwithstanding the food shortage, the government has continued production of sake to avert bootlegging and a consequent loss of taxes.

American Weekly Bares Cancer Cure Hope

There are 17,000,000 Americans living today who will die of cancer unless a cure is discovered soon enough to save some of them.

Are we any nearer to that cure today than in the past? "Absolutely yes," says Dr. Roscoe R. Spencer, Director of the National Cancer Institute of the U. S. Public Health Service, in a revealing article especially written for next Sunday's American Weekly, magazine issued with the Boston Sunday Advertiser.

The article, entitled "Hope for Cancer Cure? — Absolutely Yes," shows how doctors have been making promising strides toward solving the mystery of one of our most deadly diseases. It is an up-to-date report on what we know about cancer, what steps have been made on the long and expensive road to its defeat, and what you can do to help.

Don't miss Dr. Spencer's vital article in next Sunday's American Weekly!

for the week-end of July 19-20, in the belief the other half of the midnight rendezvous must have spent a few days in the area arranging the meeting. It is believed two days would be the minimum necesary for a small boat operator to familiarize himself with the territory

Along with the story of the rendezvous, police disclosed that H. Ellis Straw, the girl's foster father and wealthy Manchester banker, has turned over to investigators the names of all the young men with whom Anne has been in correspondence.

Letters received by the girl since the family arrived at Little Squam from their Manchester, N. H., winter home last June 16 were turned over to the investigators. Officers conducting the search obtained the names and addresses of seven young men who wrote to the curly-haired heiress, it was learned. Some were casual acquaintances and others college "dates," it was reported.

The day before Anne disappeared, she discussed her impending trip to a dude ranch out West with members of her family.

Plans had been made for Anne to depart last Wednesday with her aunt, Miss Ruth Higgins, for a ranch at Wolf, Wyo., and later for Jasper National Park.

Earlier in July, it was reported, Annt's foster parents had suggested she tour Arizona, but on her insistence it was decided the girl and her aunt go to Wyoming.

ASKS FOR SUITCASE KEY

This took on added significance when investigators said they have learned a college boy who was a friend of Anne is working this summer at Yellowstone National Park in Wyoming. Authorities are now checking with the forestry service to learn if he is still at work.

Other clues, indicating Anne was contemplating a sudden departure from the lodge of her father, one of the wealthiest and most influential men in New Hampshire, were obtained by police from several sources.

It was learned that Anne, on the afternoon preceding her disappearance, drove a maid from the lodge to the maid's home in nearby Plymouth. They left Little Squam and arrived at Plymouth at 2:30. Yet, Anne did not return to the lake until nearly 5 o'clock.

During this ride, Anne asked the maid, Mrs. Maude Miller, 50, of River st., "When you were cleaning my room, did you happen to see a key to my suitcase on my bureau?"

The maid replied in the negative. Investigators pointed out Anne did not intend packing for the Wyoming trip until late Tuesday

She was just an old mother whose work was all done,
A mother old-fashioned and gray . . .

JUSTICE, LIBERTY FOR PALESTINE

DEMANDING ACTION by the State Department leading to the re-establishment of civil administration and civil liberties to the Jewish population of Palestine, a bi-partisan group of United States Senators have introduced a resolution seeking to end the prolonged crisis in the land of Judea.

The signers are Senators Magnuson, Myers, Langer, Morse, Murray, Taylor, Young and Chavez.

Their resolution is based on the terms of the Anglo-American Treaty of 1924, under which Great Britain administers the Palestine mandate which grew out of the famous Balfour Declaration.

In the mind of the American people, there is no doubt whatever of what the Balfour Declaration meant.

It reflects the expressions of great empire leaders. Like General Smuts, who said:

"In generations to come you will see a great Jewish state rising there once more."

Or Lloyd George, who declared:

"Great Britain extended its mighty hand in friendship to the Jewish people to help it regain its ancient national home and to realize its age-long aspirations."

Or Lord Robert Cecil, who declared:

"Our wish is that Arabian countries shall be for Arabs, Armenia for the Armenians and Judea for the Jews."

Or Lord Balfour, who said:

"The destruction of Judea 1900 years ago was one of the greatest of historical crimes, which the Allies now endeavor to remedy."

Nevertheless, Palestine is now one of the world's most acute trouble spots.

It is torn by civil strife and conflicting outside interests.

American public opinion, regarding with deep sympathy the efforts of the Jewish people to rebuild their homeland and call it once again their patrimony and refuge, look with concern upon the explosive character of the struggle there.

The Senatorial resolution follows in spirit and intent the declarations of President Truman and the United Nations Commission.

The American people feel that the United States is supplying Britain with so many things, that in return some concession for Palestine should be given.

THIS OF COURSE is the practical and sensible thing for Britain to do.

It would sustain and confirm her traditions of liberty, so prominently proved in her voluntary withdrawal from India.

It would assist her strategical needs in the Near East. For, in defending an outpost of her vital resources and a bulwark against encroaching Communism, she would get invaluable assistance from a sympathetic population, conversely being handicapped by an oppressed and unfriendly people.

It would fortify the great good will of the American taxpayer, who will subscribe any aid for British survival but would regard with displeasure any encouragement of British Imperialism.

It would enhance the prestige of British justice and British respect for the pledged word.

And it would go far toward eliminating a tense situation that is of grave peril to world peace.

The Senatorial resolution will serve to focus American attention on these factors.

In the end, by marshalling public opinion toward a just and statesmanlike solution of a distressing situation, it will assist Britain and the peoples associated with her in the great commonwealth to maintain her high repute as a champion of justice and liberty.

My Irish wife has clear blue eyes
My heaven by day, my stars by night.
And twin-like, truth and fondness lies
Within her swelling bosom white.
I would not give my Irish wife
For all the dames in Saron land.
I would not give my Irish wife
For the queen of France's hand.
—THOMAS D'ARCY MCGEE.

IS your wife a clinging vine type? Is she inclined to let you handle all details of everything? If so, I urge that changes be made. Women who are clinging vines and generally helpless individuals during their married life, become pathetic figures when widowed. They wander around with bewildered expressions on their faces asking silly questions. They do ridiculous things because of their ignorance of life. They are a soft touch for swindlers. Don't overdo the sturdy oak angle in your married life. Prepare your wife to be able to face the world with confidence in the event she has to shift for herself. Thus endeth today's lesson. And there will be more tomorrow.

SIDES: Are blondes going out of style? Is this a brunnette's year or what? Anyway, the number of stage and screen stars who have switched from blonde to brunette is daily increasing. The latest to do so is Marie McDonald... When the Normandie was purchased to be scrapped the price of scrap was 16 cents a pound. Price paid for the ship was based on this quotation. Now scrap is worth 45 cents a pound! Some profit for the purchasers of that ship, what?

Marie McDonald

LAUGHTER: It was the eminent physician Dr. Christopher Hufeland who said: "Of all man's functions that affect the body and soul together, laughter is the healthiest. Laughter aids digestion, circulation, perspiration and has a refreshing effect on the strength of all organs." (Hollywoodians please take note of this and give us more laughter inspiring pictures and less psychological dramas. Please!)

OVER THERE: Hardly a day passes that you do not read or hear of some heroic action by a dog. I recently read of a quaint deed of heroism performed by a fox terrier at Yarmouth, Isle of Wight. A group of young children were paddling around in the water when a large fish started to swim between them. The kids were hysterical with fright. The dog dashed into the water, grabbed the fish by the tail and pulled it up on the beach. The fish, a tope, which is a member of the shark family, was five feet long and weighed 30 pounds!

ASKING: Queries from clients. Q—What New York gangster, while in the custody of three detectives, was shot on the courthouse steps by a rival gangster? A—Believe you have in mind that hoodlum known as Little Augie. He was shot in an automobile in front of a courthouse while in the custody of three detectives. Not only that: there were about 50 more detectives in the immediate vicinity. But an 18-year-old gunman pushed his way through the crowd, stuck a gun through the window of the automobile and shot the gangster who was handcuffed to two detectives. Q—In what film production was the song "The Sunny Side of the Street?" A—You probably have me baffled. I have a vague idea it was in the film "Mother Knows Best."

PLEASE NOTE: "Sweden faces the facts. In that country as far as the baby is concerned there is nothing sinful about any birth." So states a contemporary. What's new about that attitude toward illegitimate births? Twenty years ago Judge Leon Yankwich of Los Angeles gave voice to an observation which established in California a broadminded attitude insofar as children born out of wedlock were concerned. The Judge said: "There are no illegitimate children. Only illegitimate parents."

ABSTAINERS: The assumption that because a man doesn't smoke or drink strong liquor he is a bit on the Puritanical side is definitely erroneous. I had two uncles who neither drank nor smoked. They were both very gay fellows and very fond of a good time. One was a turf fan. That was my uncle Al. The other was a theatrical and baseball fan. That was my uncle Harry. They had nothing against liquor or tobacco. They just didn't like them for their personal use.

IMPORTED DIRECTORS: Hollywood has started importing film directors from Italy. This brings to mind that when the United States film industry was still making only two- and three-reel films, the Italians produced a super duper seven-reel film titled "Cabiria" which was shown at the Knickerbocker Theater, Manhattan, at legitimate theater prices. This film starred a huge Italian named Maciste. If you don't recall that your membership in the young old timers is in danger.

THESE DAYS

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

THE PROGRESSIVE CITIZENS of America (PAC) is the foundation of Henry Wallace's third party movement. Organized Dec. 29, 1946, it is a merger of the National Citizens Political Action Committee and the Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions.

Harold Ickes

Both organizations were part of the New Deal amalgam. Its principal organizers were Henry Wallace, Fiorello La Guardia, Archibald MacLeish, A. F. Whitney, Frank Kingdon and Joe Davidson.

Harold Ickes, who had been the executive head of the I. C. C. A. commenting on the new organization, wrote:

". . . No liberal movement can prosper that, from its very start, will be called upon to defend against the charge of Communistic taint. The cornerstone of the organization should have been a stern injunction that no Communist or sympathizer with Communism would be admitted to membership . . ."

HENRY WALLACE'S candidacy for the presidency in 1948 in the Democratic primaries was announced by Robert W. Kenny, attorney-general of California. The theory of the candidacy is to threaten Harry Truman with active opposition within his own party while at the same time, a third party, dedicated to the defeat of Truman, is being built.

It is interesting to note that Robert W. Kenny is a vice-chairman of the PAC. He has been affiliated with the following organizations, some of which have been designated as Communist fronts by the Dies Committee and by the Attorney-General of the United States:

Council for Pan American Democracy; Win-the-Peace Conference; Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions; National Citizens Political Action Committee; New Masses; National Committee to Win the Peace; Spanish Refugee Appeal; National Committee to Abolish the Poll Tax; Consumers Union; American Committee for Democracy and Intellectual Freedom; American Investors Union; American League for Peace and Democracy; Russian War Relief; Co-ordinating Committee to Lift the Embargo; Friends of the Abraham Lincoln Brigade; Hollywood Democratic Committee; Hollywood League for Democratic Action; International Juridical Association; Lawyers Committee on American Relations with Spain; Motion Picture Artists Committee; National Lawyers Guild; Mobilization for Democracy; California Labor School; American Youth for Democracy; Hollywood Community Radio Group; Statewide Legislative Conference (Cal.); Testimonial Dinner for Leo Gallagher; Washington Committee to Lift the Spanish Embargo; Hold the Price Line Committee; National Wartime Conference of the Professions, etc., etc.; California Action Committee for Civil Rights; Citizens Committee for the Defense of Mexican-American Youth; Conference for Democratic Action; Hollywood Anti-Nazi League; Harry Bridges Defense; Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee; League of American Writers; People's Daily World Fund Drive.

THE "DAILY WORKER" Reports the PAC as describing the Democratic Party in the following terms:

"It is not clear now whether this party will recover its progressive tradition or surrender to its own brand of ignorance and bigotry. We want to make one thing clear. If the Democratic Party woos privilege and betrays the people it will die and deserve to die. We cannot interfere. Rule out the possibility of a new political party, whose fidelity to our goals can be belied upon."

IT IS NOT SURPRISING that the PAC has opposed President Truman's foreign policy as has Henry Wallace. Every instance of such opposition has been active support of Soviet Russia's foreign policy. For instance, when the President announced his support of Greece, Howard Fast, as an officer of the PAC issued the following notice:

"We have used the word 'crisis' before but no crisis in the past has measured up to this one. The President's statement on Greece threatens the peace of the world. We must let Washington know that his speech does not express the real feelings of the American people . . ."

In fact the Wallace meeting at Madison Square Garden was conducted by the PAC. It was called the "crisis meeting" and it was claimed that 23,000 persons attended. There was a nationwide radio hookup on April 10 which, using remote pickups, included Senator Pepper, James Patton, A. F. Whitney, and Robert W. Kenny, PAC vice-chairman.

This then is the basis for the third party. It is the foundation organization for Henry Wallace's candidacy for the presidency. It is the same crowd that has been around these parts for many years now supporting every cause and every movement which somehow the Communists support.

Hollywood

By Louella O. Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, July 28 — Henry Morgan, radio's comedy sensation, the young man who kidded the commercials and made them pay off, has been signed for a motion picture. He comes to Hollywood to star in Ring Lardner's comedy satire, "So This Is New York."

Henry Morgan

Morgan was signed by Stanley Kramer, president of Screen Plays, Inc., on a two-picture deal which nets the newcomer $100,000 a picture and a share of the profits. Story No. 2 has not yet been selected. Not bad at all for a young man who only within the past two years has become nationally known. He has proved, if anyone ever has, the wisdom of being original.

Already he has imitators — that usually happens, but wasn't it Shakespeare who said imitation is the sincerest form of flattery? Morgan gets here in September and the picture will be made on the Enterprise lot.

IF YOU DON'T THINK the current romantic sizzler, Burt Lancaster, can write his own ticket in Hollywood, listen to this: Joan Fontaine and Bill Dozier wanted him for "Thunder on the Hill", which was to have gone into production in April, but it wasn't possible to borrow him. Since this is Rampart's, Joan's own company's picture, she and Bill can do pretty much what they want, so they have postponed it until July, 1948, until they can get Burt.

I don't think I've ever heard of a popular star of Joan's caliber—and believe me, she can hold any picture on her own—waiting that long for a leading man, or shall I say a co-star, for I suppose that's what he'll be.

Robert Siodmak, now in Europe, will take over the direction. "Thunder on the Hill", remember, was adapted from Robert Wilder's sensational novel, "Written on the Wind".

TOMMYE ADAMS, who some time ago bought her wedding dress and hat to marry George Jessel, will now wait until she has her movie career—and believe me, it's right around the corner for Tommye.

Under the name of Abigail Adams she has just been signed by Harry Cohn, at Columbia to a seven-year contract. She made a test with Lee Bowman, which was especially written for her, and Boss Cohn signed her immediately.

When I talked to Tommye today she was sick in bed with the flu and she said she was hurrying to get well so she could go to the studio. She said:

"I want to have a successful picture before we marry and not be known as George Jessel's girl friend."

HOT GOSSIP out of Mexico is that Linda Christians is no longer the favored femme of a political potentate down there and that her romance with another man is very much out in the open.

Linda, who is working on the Johnny Weissmuller "Tarzan and the Mermaid" movie in Acapulco, is suddenly wearing a new gold bracelet with a heart and key dangling diamonds. On it is written, "Here is my heart to keep always—Turhan."

The rest of the "Turhan" is Bey—and believe me, this romance is abloomin'. Linda, in fact, is practically admitting an engagement.

CHATTER IN HOLLYWOOD: The most exciting romance in Hollywood is that of Hedy Lamar and Mark Stevens. Before she went to Lake Tahoe Hedy was seeing Mark practically every day, and now there are plenty of long distance calls.

Whether or not this will be serious, who knows? She was awarded a divorce from John Loder last week, and Mark's divorce is a matter of days now.

Well, when Mark Hellinger throws up his hands and says he will never make another picture in New York, Hollywood has nothing to fear about losing the industry.

If anybody could lick the red tape that local boy, Hellinger, should be the one. But when he yells "uncle" others will stop, look and listen. Mark says, "too much red tape, rigamarole and expense."

David Selznick is another who got a stomachful, with delays and tribulations shooting "Portrait of Jenny," and Henry Hathaway has soured on the big town making "Kiss of Death."

California, here they come—BACK.

I was talking to Johnny Johnston, and he tells me he and Kathryn Grayson have now set the 23rd of August as their wedding date. They'll be married in Carmel with Maureen O'Hara and her husband, Will Price, as attendants. Jimmy Durante and Jose Iturbi are flying up to attend, and Iturbi will play the wedding march. Jimmy said he would sing, but he didn't think he could do justice to "Oh, Promise Me." Kathryn and Johnny will honeymoon in Oregon and California and spend part of their time fishing on the Rogue river.

If anything will kill off those last year's whispers that all was not well with Glenn Ford and Eleanor Powell, this should do it.

On Oct. 24, their fourth wedding anniversary, Glenn and Eleanor will be remarried in an Anglican church in Quebec with their large families turning out en masse for the event.

The family clans are the real reason for the second ceremony. When the Fords were married in Hollywood four years ago it was wartime, and travel restrictions kept the relatives from coming here from Canada.

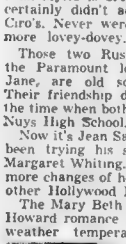
Whatever problems Glenn and Eleanor had when he first returned from the service were, I am sure, just those little adjustments many married couples, separated for so long, had to face. Now all is well.

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD collected at random: If the romance of Ray Hendricks, Laraine Day's ex, and Joan Myles is broken up, they certainly didn't act like it at Ciro's. Never were two people more lovey-dovey.

Those two Russell girls on the Paramount lot, Gail and Jane, are old school chums. Their friendship dates back to the time when both were in Van Nuys High School.

Now it's Jean Sablon who has been trying his songs out on Margaret Whiting. That gal has more changes of heart than any other Hollywood lady.

The Mary Beth Hughes-John Howard romance is at summer weather temperature. They were at a table for two at the Seacombers. By the way, John, who was such a hero during the war, hasn't made a picture in ages. How come?



Mary Beth Hughes

At the Seacombers the very same evening were Rochelle Hudson and Dick (Sports Writer) Hyland. Looks as if Rochelle may be Dick's third wife.

Humphrey Bogart and Baby have a new gag. When guests come to dinner they find written on their place cards, "please refrain from talking about politics."

Cary Grant sails Sept. 1 for Bristol to prepare for his Korda picture.

Betty Grable and Harry James are spending their vacation at Del Mar for the opening of the races. They leave here Aug. 2 with the two children.

Joan Blondell returned to Hollywood over the week-end to do added scenes in "Nightmare Alley". As soon as she finishes, she'll go back to New York and rejoin her bridegroom.

Despite denials, everyone who knows Virginia Fields well says that the news of her separation from Howard Grode will come out after she sails for England—but there is no truth in the story that she's reconciling with Paul Douglas, her first husband.

That's all today.

Boston After Dark

MONDAY MUSINGS: PRETTY BLONDE KAY TWOMEY of Jamaica Plain is the summer's important new resident of Tin Pan Alley's best section—the area reserved for "hit" writers whose output surely will be "performed" . . . Miss Twomey's story is one answer to the plaintive and recurrent cry in this column as to where, oh where, is Boston's quota of creative talent in the various fields of show business . . . With extreme pleasure, therefore, we submit the details.

MISS TWOMEY'S song, "It's Like a Trip to Tipperary," must comes in for attention first . . . Guy Lombardo will introduce it on the radio, Aug. 18 . . . Chappell, Inc., the "class" publishing house of Tin Pan Alley, and the firm which handles, among other writers, Oscar Hammerstein 2d and Richard Rodgers, owns "It's Like a Trip to Tipperary" . . . "Tipperary" has a twofold significance from the Boston "angle" . . . In the opinion of an expert like John O'Connor, a director of ASCAP, the songwriters' "union," "It's Like a Trip to Tipperary" not only will launch Miss Twomey on a spectacular new success, but will make an overnight recording star of one Matthew "Matt" Riley.

THE SONG was written for Matt Riley—as a favor, more or less . . . But the favor has worked out so well all-around that the selfsame John O'Connor, who managed Fred Waring into top income brackets and national renown, says that young Mr. Riley, a tenor, has become so valuable by reason of a recording of the song that he, O'Connor, would not take $20,000 for his managerial percentage of Matt.

WE SHOULD REVIEW the career of Mr. Riley, perhaps, before going on with the story of Kay Twomey and the seven songs she has written with Al Goodhart and George L. Meyer for September and October release this year . . . Matt was a broth of a b'ye who sang for more than two years at the Music Box in the Copley Square Hotel . . . James "Jimmy" O'Keefe took an interest in Matthew, and elected him his protege . . . Sundry personages in the Broadway - Hollywood arena were enlisted by O'Keefe to promote the vocalizing career of Riley, a native of Portland but a Bostonian by adoption . . . Matthew made an impression on several of the luminaries reached by his friend O'Keefe . . . Even Boris Morros, who produced "Carnegie Hall," lent an ear or two to Matt's singing, and said that the boy had a future . . . But nothing as so often is the case—happened.

AN OLD RELIABLE of the Broadway scene, Bill Duffy, finally "won" the Riley talents for his own private use . . . Duffy once was a potent lad himself along the Big Street, back when he owned part of Primo Carnera, the fighter, and Duffy's Tavern in 44th st . . . Bill was a bona-fide big-shot in New York in the Fabulous Twenties . . . His friend then and now was John O'Connor, prominent in the music-publishing business and chief stockholder in Woodward Music, a song-publishing firm

Duffy introduced Riley and O'Connor . . . O'Connor introduced Riley and Miss Twomey, and Miss Twomey heard Matt sing and sat right down to write a song to his measure . . . "It's Like a Trip to Tipperary" was the result . . . Kay and her composer, Al Goodhart, had written one "Irish" ballad that has sold already a million and a half copies . . . "Johnny Doughboy Found a Rose in Ireland" was the song . . . This new one, they promised, would be equally successful

WELL, TIN PAN ALLEY thinks they are right . . . Chappell bought the song at once . . . But Miss Twomey and O'Connor insisted that Riley, the Boston boy who was having a difficult time of it in an attempt to "crash" the theater or radio in New York, must get a first shot at recording the number . . . One night last week, after nine long hours in the recording studio of Signature Records, they made a master record of "It's Like a Trip to Tipperary."

MATT RILEY finally had clenched his teeth and opened his tonsils and knocked down the self-consciousness which has made him mute in previous recording attempts, and sang an "Irish" ballad the way his friends O'Keefe and O'Connor and Miss Twomey and Al Goodhart knew he could . . . This Riley recording, with Johnny Long's orchestra playing the accompaniment, is beautiful, believe me . . . O'Connor thinks that it will make Riley an overnight star.

MISS TWOMEY'S other songs already contracted for and ready for fall release carry these titles: "Who Were You Kissing When You Kissed Me Last Night?" "You Made Me Remember the Girl Who Forgot," "In a Little Bookshop," "Serenade of the Bells," "It's Heartbreaking," "I'm Living a Lie," and "The Dinner Got Cold as Our Love Was Getting Warm" . . . O'Connor's firm, owns "Serenade of the Bells" and "I'm Living a Lie" . . . Bourne Music, Inc., has bought "It's Heartbreaking" and Sammy Kaye has made the first record . . . Bourne also owns "Who Were You Kissing etc." and both Vaughn Monroe and Art Mooney have been signed to record it . . . Bregman, Vocco and Conn own the rights to "In a Little Bookshop," and Miss Twomey's contract stipulates that the Bregman firm (one of the best) will make her number the No. 1 "plug" for September . . . It should indeed be a profitable fall and winter for the young Jamaica Plain girl who is one of the few girl-members of ASCAP, and who took up songwriting when her father died nine years ago.

KAY, HER SISTER, Madeline and their mother, Mrs. T. Joseph Twomey, live in Zamora st., Jamaica Plain . . . Kay attended the New England Conservatory for three years after being graduated from Jamaica Plain High . . . Sister Madeline, by the way, is a talented costume designer . . . The Twomey sisters say that it won't be long before they merge talents for a musical comedy.

Washington Scene

WASHINGTON, July 28—It just goes to show there's always a point at which even a superman breaks down.

The passport fraud trial of Communist-voyager Gerhart Eisler was given an added fillip of drama the other day when the prisoner's sister, Mrs. Ruth Fischer, took the stand against him.

The short, plump Mrs. Fischer, who said she used to be a Commy like her brother but had seen the light, testified she had made a pilgrimage to Moscow with Eisler. There they had consulted with the top Communists.

Prosecutor Hitz asked whom all they had met and Mrs. Fischer, in a deep German guttural, rattled off a difficult list of names. Said she:

"We saw them all—Molotov, Malenkov, Zhdanov, Kaganovich, Voroshilov, Mikoyan, Andreyev, Kasyon, Voznesenky, Khruschev, Shernik—and Joe Stalin."

The court stenographer, who had been recording the screwily-spelled names, setting all the "v's" and "z's" in their proper places without ever a stumble, suddenly looked up and halted the witness.

"What's that?" he demanded. "What was that last name?"

JIMMY MORRISON, who is one of a large field running for governor of Louisiana, gave sanctuary the other night to a constituent who found himself in Washington. Before seeking out Jimmy the voter treated himself to quite a spree and was in a very bedraggled and disreputable state by the time he showed up at the Morrison apartment.

Jimmy gave him dinner, loaned him a suit of pajamas, bedded him down for the night, fed him breakfast next morning and loaned him a clean shirt. As the guest was departing Jimmy asked casually:

"By the way, whom are you voting for, for governor?"

"Bob Kennon," replied the ungrateful guest.

TRENCHANT OBSERVATION: Sen. William E. Jenner, Republican, of Indiana, told the Senate appropriations committee that Indiana citizens who pay federal taxes are tired of getting a wiener for a ham.

A NUMBER OF US patrons of the living theater have been making pilgrimages to Olney, Md., recently where a summer stock company is in residence.

It is quite a sight, our eminent legislators and bureaucrats absorbing the drama in this rustic setting. The only drawback is that often the audience commands more attention than the players. It is one of the rubberneckingest places this side of Hollywood and Vine.

A great counter-attraction to one of the Olney performances was unwittingly provided by Mrs. Roy St. Lewis, wife of one of our most eminent attorneys. She remembered, midway in the play, that she had promised to telephone her husband in Denver. She went to the public phone booth just off the stage. The connection was bad so she had to yell.

Her husband asked where she was. Not wishing to bother explaining that she was in a theater she shouted, "I'm home." He then asked her what she was doing, to which she howled: "I'm canning squash!"

Her conversation was filled with many terms of endearment and ended with a bellowed: "I love you!"

When she started to slide back unobstrusively to her seat the audience greeted her with titters. It seems that for five minutes she had been drowning out everything said on stage.

Q—Our strawberry plants have reddish leaves and spots. Plants seem to grow slowly.

A—This may be leaf spot, a disease quite common in all areas, or it may be caused by a lack of plant food. Suggest applying complete fertilizer as a side-dressing and spraying with bordeaux to keep new growth covered.

Q—When should corn ears be treated for earworm?

A—The best time to treat the ear is about four or five days after the silk has emerged. This gives time for pollination before the treatment. Inject about one-half of a common eyedropper full into the silk.

Q—I have found several large green worms on our tomatoes. Will arsenate kill them?

A—If there are only a few worms, it is more practical to hand-pick them.

Q—Does close cutting of grass cause it to burn?

A—If the lawn has been growing fast during wet weather, it may suffer some damage by sun scald if cut too close. This can be prevented by leaving the grass at least two inches tall during midsummer.

Q—Can spinach be planted now?

A—It is too warm during midsummer to grow regular spinach, but not too late for New Zealand spinach, which can stand summer heat. New Zealand spinach must be cut regularly to keep the quality good.

Lincoln Papers Ready for Public

WASHINGTON, July 28 (AP)—The Library of Congress braced itself today for an anticipated rush of visitors bent on getting a look at the private papers of Abraham Lincoln.

The original documents in the Robert Todd Lincoln collection, now open to public inspection for the first time since the death of the Civil War President, are in bound volumes on display at the library.

Dr. C. Percy Powell, chief of the manuscripts division, says the hardest part of his job is yet to come.

"Everybody who had a grandfather in the Civil War is going to come in here and see if Lincoln wrote him a letter," he said.

WESTBORO MAN KILLED

WESTBORO, July 28 (AP)—Henry Meehan, 53, of Westboro, suffered fatal injuries when the car he was driving failed to make a turn off a cutoff.

Quincy Children End Harlem Visit

NEW YORK, July 28 (INS)—A social experiment "to prove the folly of racial intolerance" ended happily today, as a group of Negro families in Harlem enthused over the two-weeks visit of 12 white girls and one white boy from Quincy, Mass.

The children had spent two weeks visiting the colored youngsters, in a project sponsored by the Grace Congregational Church, a Negro church in Harlem and the Quincy Point Congregational Church in Quincy.

As the Massachusetts contingent departed, they said the experiment was worth while and all wanted to repeat it. Charlotte Peterson, 14, of Quincy said the experiment was "convincing proof that a Negro and a white person could get along about as well as two white people," and a Harlem hostess said that "a lot of good will come out of the visits."

WE MAY NOT RECOGNIZE the highly specialized technique of selling as such when it comes to you and me . . . but isn't that what we try to do all the time . . . sell ourselves? Don't we try to sell our appearance and our ability . . . figuratively speaking . . . whether we're devoted mothers and home-makers or ardent wage-earners?

Perhaps we don't actually think of the implied salesmanship behind the way we do our hair, the makeup we choose, or the kind of clothes we wear . . . but definitely our appearance is our sales ticket . . . our card of introduction, even before we've spoken a word. Very often we don't get a chance to show our true worth . . . because the person we're trying to interest isn't interested in the way we look.

Of course, it shouldn't be that way . . . but that's the way it is in a highly competitive civilization when so much is taken at face value. So many people are so busy within themselves and their own little spheres of activity . . . they refuse to look below the surface to discover whether or not you've got a heart of gold and a brilliantly academic mind.

They take one look at you . . . and if you don't measure up to the expectations of the glance . . . if you look as though you don't care how you look . . . they don't care about you either. You may have all the beauty of soul but unless a little of that beauty is written in your face, in the bright, clean complexion that's foil for bright eyes and glistening hair . . . usually you're licked before you start.

WORLD OF POISE AND ASSURANCE

That radiant, wonderful complexion gives a gal a world of poise and assurance . . . even though her features are not chiseled with perfection. At least, she can face it confident in the knowledge that her facial expanse is as smooth as a petal leaf and just as pretty. If you'd like to be a few leagues closer to complexion perfection . . . let an unusual cleanser that is neither soap nor cream yet possesses the wholesome and clean properties of both be your facial friend.

A little in the palm of the hand mixed with tepid water and vigorously washed over the face leaves it sparkling bright and fresh-clean . . . as though the face had just been dipped in the cool waters of a mountain spring. Especially in the humid summer when sticky heat attracts so many dust particles and lodges them on the skin to make the complexion a fertile breeding place for eruptions . . . this extraordinary skin wash is an indispensable for all skin types.

It is one of those inside-out cleansers that does more than skim the superficial surface of the complexion. Actually it magnetizes the day's accumulation from the face and leaves a little of its cosmetic goodness in the tissue to make the skin bloom like a rose.

For the name of this inside-out, cheek-bloom cleanser, phone the Beauty Dept., LIBerty 4000, any day except week-ends, or write to me care of the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

NOT WHOLLY because she has blonde hair is Betty Hutton tagged the "blonde bombshell" . . . but because she has personality-plus which expresses itself in her alive and alert countenance . . . beauteous and bubbling with complexion perfection . . . an individualism which cannot be denied a second glance.

Typical Summertime Meal

By MARTHA LEE, Household Editor

IT WOULDN'T BE very difficult to describe a typical American summertime meal. Such a meal would include cool drinks, crisp relishes or salad, and very probably a platter of cold sliced meats for the piece de resistance. There might be one hot dish; and the dessert is quite likely to be a fresh fruit selected from the abundant variety of fruits in season.

A meal which follows this general pattern fulfills all the requirements. It is sufficiently hearty and satisfying for active people; at the same time, the foods selected are "easy to take" in hot weather. What's more, this type of meal puts no unnecessary strain on the homemaker's time and energy, because it's so easy to prepare and serve.

READY-TO-SERVE MEATS

This is especially true of the cold meat platter. What could possibly be easier than taking several kinds of ready-to-serve meats out of the refrigerator and arranging them on a platter? These handy "cold cuts," which you can have sliced at the market, are ready and waiting to make the meal a success.

They offer variety to suit everyone's taste; and the wise homemaker will try to select an assortment of meats that are different in appearance, texture, flavor and spiciness. There are so many to choose from—bologna, salami, summer sausage, liverwurst, and the various meat loaves, to name just a few.

These meats offer concentrated nourishment, too. They contain the same food values that fresh meats supply; and they're solid meat with no waste.

Of course, there are other ways to serve these delicious prepared meats besides merely arranging them on a platter. They're made-to-order for hearty sandwiches, whether those sandwiches are to be served for lunch or supper at home or carried on a hiking expedition.

Ready-to-serve meats are a standard item for a basket picnic, where you fill the basket with tasty items and let folks make their own sandwiches when it's time to eat. Other foods to carry along, which combine with cold meats to make elegant sandwiches, include crisp lettuce, sliced cucumber and tomatoes, American or Swiss cheese, peanut butter, mayonnaise, mustard, pickle relish, and hard-cooked eggs.

Prepared meats are also ideal to use in main dish salads. For a quick supper "special," fill a salad bowl with a tossed salad, then lay thin strips of bologna and pressed ham or "boiled" ham over the top. Potato salad or a mixed vegetable salad becomes practically a one-dish meal when frankfurter slices or cubes of spicy luncheon meat are added to the vegetables.

Inviting Boy's Parents

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX: I am a young girl of 16 and I have been going steady for the past five months with a boy who is 20. We love each other very much, but we don't plan to marry for at least two or three more years.

Is it proper for me to invite his parents to my house to meet my parents at this early stage? When is the proper time for the parents to be introduced? "ANXIOUS."

Dear "Anxious": If you are definitely engaged to this boy, then your parents should invite his parents to come to dinner, or plan to meet them in some similar way. But unless both sets of parents understand that an actual engagement exists, it would be a little awkward. So be sure of your ground, first.

If you are engaged, it is not too early for your parents to meet. If not, wait awhile.

Elegant Teatime Dresses

By EILEEN CALLAHAN

FASHIONABLE WOMEN are reviving the pleasant custom of meeting friends for 5 o'clock tea, of planning a serene hour between the bustle of the day and the exciting doings of the evening. The clothes they wear are quiet and elegant, like the palm-decorated restaurants of the fine old hotels where women like to gather for the ritual of afternoon tea.

These clothes take the best from the latest fashions and with quiet authority embody a touch of the grandeur that women loved in a more leisurely era. There is a revival of fringe, especially the long, silken fringe that moves and ripples with each graceful movement of the body. Dark beading has come back to enrich fine fabrics and provide glitter without gaudiness. Colors for teatime clothes are the mauves, the grays, the purplish reds that went to tea parties when McKinley was president.

Eta designed the two-piece dove gray dress sketched today. The hipline of the longish jacket is tiered in flaps and the front flaps are decorated with long, knotted fringe. The neckline of the jacket is easy, with small rolled revers. The skirt is straight and slim.

Comfort of Good Manners

One of the most comforting rewards about having a dependable standard of manners is that you don't miss the fun of knowing that all's well with what it is your inclination to do and say, of knowing that others approve of your manners, of knowing how to handle a social situation that calls for special tact and sure technique.—MRS. BEECKMAN.

Solon Asks Study Of World Needs

NEW YORK, July 28 (INS)—Sen. McMahon (D.) of Ct., proposed an inventory of the world's security needs as a supplement to the Marshall plan for European recovery.

McMahon said in a commencement address at Fordham University that the United States should invite all countries to state their security requirements. Under his proposal the security inventory would be taken by the United Nations.

He said the study would show whether Russia was really desirous of "peace with justice."

9000 End Strike At Remington Rand

NEW YORK, July 28 (INS)—The five-week strike of 9000 Remington Rand workers in five cities, which was marked by violence in Ilion, N. Y., and Benton Harbor, Mich., was settled after a weekend of almost unbroken negotiating sessions.

The company and the CIO United Electrical Workers announced the strikers were asked to ratify the agreement at mass meetings today. The agreement gives them an 8-cent hourly increase and six paid holidays. Pickets had successfully discouraged a back-to-work move at Ilion.

Hitler's 2-Wives Plan Exposed

COPENHAGEN, July 28 (INS)—Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler's private masseur and frequent companion disclosed that Adolf Hitler's postwar plans required every German man to have two wives.

The masseur, Estonia-born Felix Kersten, revealed that the Fuehrer intended to boost the European Germanic population to 500,000,000 by this form of polygamy and by compelling all able bodied women over 30 to bear children.

Kersten exposed "this and other secrets of Nazi bigwigs in his book, "I Spoke With Himmler," scheduled for publication in Stockholm Aug. 1.

"I wuz thinkin'...."

by Izzy Ort

Youse people wat read old time books will remember "Little Egypt," the dancin' lass wid the fluid drive that made the Exposition of '93 better remembered than the first electric lights! Well, dis week an' fer several ta come, I got the 1947 version of "Little Egypt," in the person of Anita Kahn, better knowed in some parts as the "Egyptian Fire Ball." Along side a Miss Kahn, a Swiss watch is a hunka junk! She's utterly amazin'! Utterly, I said, old boy! The minut I spotted her in the first fandango she done in my Grille, I said she's wat the doctor ordered. She's fulla life an' as active as a common fulla squirrels. She'll be a nitely feature in my Grille shows witch is a good reason fer ya ta waltz in here tanight an' get a gander at her. Incidently, my talent search on Tuesdays is gettin' ta be an institution. They's a million laffs an' I'm helpin' people get started in show business. Everyone starts at the bottom except well diggers! Several of them people wat's doin' very well in the show world, got their start wid me. We need new faces an' that's wat I got in stock on Tuesday evenin's. Wether it's hot or cold, rainin' or shinin', the most fun in town is right here wid me witch is why the gayest, gay afternoon an' night spot in town is Ort's Grille, 25 Essex St., Boston.

Fete Aids Hospital

BOTH ENDS of the Massachusetts shore line are busy with plans for two big sports events beginning Friday and Saturday—Race Week at Marblehead and the 27th annual Children's Hospital Week at Cataumet which consists of tennis and golf tournaments, water sports, picnics and dances, all for the benefit of the hospital.

And in answer to those technical souls who say the Bay State shore actually ends at Provincetown, artists on the tip of the Cape are painting like mad to achieve the honor of creating the best landscape.

Mrs. Robert Faxon

Cataumet's week of sports is unique because the whole community is involved from the little ones who have just graduated from water wings to old salts who've been racing their yachts for many years.

This year they've even worked up an inter-resort competition with folks at Marion, across Buzzards Bay. Like the stories of the old days in rural New England when teams of farmers, woodcutters and fire brigades from different towns competed with representatives of the others, the best golfers, swimmers and tennis stars of the Cape tournaments will meet in finals around Labor Day.

Anne M. Bement and Mrs. Albert J. Beveridge, Jr., of Cataumet are chairmen of sports week, with Mrs. Francis G. Shaw and Ann Chase running the tennis tournaments; Mrs. John Grew and Rodney Howard, golf; Mrs. Robert W. Faxon, Robert Gibbs, Talbot Baker and F. W. Pratt, water sports, boat races and the picnic lunch at Wings Neck on Aug. 8.

MARY ELIZABETH SHERMAN and Hans S. Erichsen, whose engagement was announced Saturday at a tea given by her mother, Mrs. Everett B. Sherman of New Bedford, are planning to be married in September, as soon as Mr. Erichsen returns from a business trip abroad.

Mary Elizabeth graduated from Chevy Chase and made her debut at the New Bedford Assembly. For her engagement party she wore a midnight blue chiffon gown with a pink eyelet yoke and a corsage of pink orchids from her fiance.

Toasting the couple were many guests, including Mr. Erichsen's mother, Mrs. Anna M. Erichsen of New York and Fox Lake, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Sherman, Milton; Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman, New Bedford, brothers and sisters-in-law of the prospective bride; Lt. Col. and Mrs. William C. Keel, Worcester; Mr. and Mrs. John Burr (Joan Ames) formerly of Boston and now next door neighbors of the prospective bride; his brother, Carleton Burr; Elizabeth Watts, Milton and Leopold Peavey, Marblehead.

Mr. Erichsen attended Swarthmore College and served with the Navy and State Departments in the American Legation at Stockholm.

WEDDING BELLS will chime in the early winter for Emily Ruth Perry and William James Cox, whose engagement is announced by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Perry of Boston and Martha's Vineyard.

The prospective bride's father is principal emeritus of Phillips Exeter Academy. She graduated from Miss Porter's and the Nursery Training School and teaches at the Lincoln Nursery.

Her fiance was a member of Mask and Wig, the dramatic society at the University of Pennsylvania and later served four years in the Navy as an officer aboard destroyers in the Pacific.

TOO MANY COOKS

PHILADELPHIA, July 28 (AP)—A Philadelphia restaurant owner learned that too many cops and fugutives, like too many cooks also can ruin the broth.

When police surprised a group of men shooting dice near George Mazzo's restaurant, the men scrambled for the nearest avenue of escape — Mazzo's kitchen door—pursued by four policemen.

But 12 excited men proved too much for a kitchen built for two and the visitors emerged dripping soup, meat balls and spaghetti.

North End Man Held After Fight With Cop

Arthur McGonagle, of Stillman st., North End, one of two men allegedly involved in an early morning slugging affray with Patrolman Arthur J. Gallant of the Joy st. station, pleaded not guilty to assault charges in municipal court today and was held in $500 for hearing Thursday.

Police informed Judge Davis B. Keniston that the other man would be released from City Hospital at that time and that they would also place charges against him.

The trouble allegedly began when Gallant removed one of the pair from a Scollay sq. restaurant and his friend sought to aid him.

Williams and Walker Are Setting Pace

Ted Williams

The pennant picture in the major leagues has taken on a new aspect in recent days all because of a couple of real professionals—Ted Williams and Dixie Walker, according to the Associated Press.

Only a week ago experts were predicting a New York Yankee rout in the American League flag race while forecasting another nerve-tingling down-to-the-wire finish in the National. At that time, the Yankees were enjoying a 12½-game lead over the Boston Red Sox while the Brooklyn Dodgers boasted a slim 2½-game edge over the Boston Braves and New York Giants.

But look at the picture today. The Red Sox, led by Williams, once again the "Terrible Teddy" of the 1941 and '42 seasons, have cut three full games off the Yankees' once seemingly insurmountable lead and now trail by 9½ games. Of these only eight are in the important "lost" column.

The Dodgers, with Walker hitting with the same old gusto that established him as the "people's cherce" in Flatbush, have opened up a seven-game bulge over the second-place St. Louis Cardinals, with the Braves and Giants skidding eight games in the rear. That despite the victory they "lost" when League Pres. Ford Frick upheld a Cardinal protest of a Dodger win July 20.

Williams and walker got off to disappointing starts this season. As late as the time of the All-Star game July 8, each was hitting below .300. With the inter-league classic out of the way, the two slugger got going.

Williams, stymied by the assorted shifts set up against his left handed pull hitting, finally broke through the unorthodox defense with a tremendous power display that enabled him to raise his early July average of .297 to .330. During the past three weeks, Ted has been belting at a .420 clip, pounding out eight homers in the last 20 games and driving in 22 runs. As a result, he leads the American League with 23 home runs, 71 runs batted in, 76 runs scored and trails only Cleveland's Lou Boudreau and New York's Joe DiMaggio in batting.

Walker bettered his July 8 mark of .279 to an even .300 in three weeks. During that stretch, Dixie has been walloping the ball at a .367 clip and has driven in 22 runs to boost his total to 62, sixth high in the league.

Dixie drove in three runs yesterday to help the Dodgers sweep both ends of a double-header from the Pirates in Pittsburgh, 8-4 and 11-4, and extend their latest winning streak to nine. Hank Behrman, recently returned by Pittsburgh, won his third straight for the Brooks in the opener, but needed a masterful relief exhibition by Hugh Casey to escape with the win. Casey hurled the last two innings and fanned Hank Greenberg with the bases loaded and two out in the eighth. After making 17 hits against five flingers in the first game, the Dodgers pounded three more Pitt pitchers for 12 hits in the nightcap, cut to seven innings by Pennsylvania's Sunday curfew law. Jackie Robinson and Pete Reiser homered for the Brooks.

With Williams slugging a 420-foot homer in the first game and a double to left field against the right side defense in the second, the Red Sox took two from the St. Louis Browns in Boston, 4-3 and 12-2. Tex Hughson and Dave Ferriss were the winning pitchers. An unusual incident occurred in the sixth inning of the opener when Boston first baseman Murrell Jones was awarded a three-base hit under the rules when Brownie pitcher Fred Sanford threw his glove at Jones' dribble down the third base line. The ball was foul at the time, but that didn't matter.

The Yankees lost a full game from their lead when they were held to a split in their double-header with the Chicago White Sox. After Bobo Newsom had won his fourth straight game in a Yankee uniform by pitching a 7-4 win, the White Sox came back to win the nightcap 5-4 when Luke Appling doubled in the ninth against Joe Page and came in on a single by Taft Wright. Page saved the first game victory for Newsom with a hitless three and two-third innings relief job.

Red Ruffing, former Yankee, facing his old mates for the first time in 17 years, was charged with the first game loss.

The Cardinals lost a game and a half to the Dodgers when the Braves, behind the seven-hit pitching of Johnny Sain, handed them a 10-3 lacing. The Braves, led by Tommy Holmes, who cracked out three hits, pounded Harry Brecheen and four other pitchers for 18 blows, including seven doubles and Holmes' home run. It was Sain's 13th victory.

The Giants staged a 16-hit attack, including Bobby Thomson's 19th home run, to defeat the Chicago Cubs 12-6. The Cubs used six pitchers in a vain attempt to stop the Giants, who extended to 15 the number of consecutive games in which they have hit for the circuit. The Giants set the league record of 16 earlier this season.

Oscar Judd won his first game of the season as the Philadelphia Phillies divided a double-header with the Reds in Cincinnati. After Kent Peterson had pitched the Reds to a 5-1 win in the first game despite allowing 12 hits, Judd outlasted three Redleg hurlers to give the Phillies a 6-5 nightcap win. The second game was halted at the end of eight innings because of darkness.

Third place Detroit lost an opportunity to gain on the Yankees when they were held by the Athletics in Philadelphia, the A's coming back to win the second game 5-0 after Detroit had won the opener 5-1. Dick Fowler hurled his third shutout in limiting the Tigers to four hits. Fred Hutchinson won his ninth game in the opener.

Manager Lou Boudreau drove in both Cleveland runs to give the Indians a 2-1 victory over the Senators in Washington. Boudreau made two of the Indians' five hits against Early Wynn. Allen Gettel received credit for the victory although replaced by Bob Feller in the sixth.

1st Round of Hearst N.E. Golf Classic Opens At Woodland

By BILL GRIMES

There's a free trip to California awaiting the finalists of the 32 youngsters, who today are playing the first round of the Hearst New England junior championship at the Woodland Golf Club.

After four rounds of match play, the Hearst field will be down to two contestants, who will have qualified to participate in the second annual national junior championship, which will be held the week of Aug. 18 at the California Country Club, in Los Angeles.

Of course before going to the Coast, the finalists will play off for the New England junior crown, which Vinnie Moran, Fresh Pond was obliged to default because he's over the age limit.

The cream of the junior crop is in action today at Woodland. Topping the field are Jackie Nies, Jr., United Shoe, and Bob Marchese, Country Club of Springfield, who were the finalist and runner-up in the recent state juniors at the Worcester Country Club.

Although they are favored over the other 30 contestants, Nies and Marshese have a tough row to hoe. For instance, in the upper half of the draw are Bernie Fauteux, Paskamansett, who was the medalist at the Pawtucket Golf Club, Bill Roberts, The Orchards, a semi-finalist at Worcester, Tom Hovey, Worcester C. C., Joe Grochmal, Springfield Memorial, Danny Magiera, W. Warwick, R. I., Charlie Adams, youngster brother of Teddy and Bob Adams and Paul Kendrick, Wollaston.

It is a real assignment for even Jackie Nies to maneuver his way through such a fine array of young stars, as the above mentioned group.

And, Bob Marchese will encounter stiff opposition in the lower bracket. The Williams' sophomore is playing Larry Warren, Woburn, this mornigg and if he survives he'll meet the winner of the Dick Costello, United Shoe, Herb Sederman, Pakachoag, match this afternoon. Also in the fourth quarter are Ken Campbell, Wollaston, medalist at the South Shore Country Club; Bill Dow, Wellesley; Dick Crosby, Albemarle, and Curtis Bates, Paskamansett. The third quarter is far from a soft touch for any one. Don Koenig, Putnam, Ct., another medalist, is playing Paul Butler, Pawtucket, the ex-Rhode Island Junior titleholder, this morning and Joe Carson, Furnace Brook, is out with Eugene Peary, Highland; Tom Mahan, Jr., United Shoe, is playing Paul Harney, Wachusett, and Ralph Jenkins, who was beaten in the Hearst finals last year by Vinnie Moran, is opposing Bob Wallace, Unicorn.

Naturally, the gallery is following Jackie Nies and Walter Hewins, Winthrop and Bob Marchese and Larry Warren, but the Charlie Adams-Danny Magiera, the Joe Grochmal-Tom Hovey, the Fauteux-Hugh Mullin, Paul Kendrick-Jim Quinn and the Tom Mahan and Paul Harney matches will be well worth following.

Although the draw has divided the talent as equally as possible, there is no telling what will happen during the first four rounds of match play. The experts like Nies and Marchese. But, the juniors are not respectors of experts' opinions. They are noted for producing upsets. And, there isn't any reason to believe that the Hearst will be an exception.

The finalists at Woodland (and your guess is as good as mine as to whom they'll be) will leave for Los Angeles two weeks from today. They will arrive at Los Angeles on the night of August 14, which will give them three days to acquaint themselves with the California Country Club course.

During the Nationals, the New England representatives will bump into the stiffest encounter of their young careers. Mac Hunter, the Hearst National Junior champion, who hails from Riverside, Cal. will defend his title. And, despite his recognized ability, Hunter will have more trouble this year than he did in Detroit when he won the crown.

Tommy Veech, Milwaukee, who beat Hunter in June while winning the Western Junior championship, "Bud" Worsham, brother of the U. S. Open titleholder, Tim Holland, Long Island, N. Y. and Gene Towry, Dallas, Tex., who was beaten in the first round of the National Public Links championship last week are a few of the juniors, whom Mac Hunter must knock off to retain his Hearst National crown.

After the Nationals, the New Englanders will return home via San Francisco and will be a week enroute.

There'll be two rounds daily at Woodland and the finals will be played Wednesday morning with John Chew, the state amateur champion, acting as the referee.

Williams on Rampage As Sox Win Two Tilts

Boston's somewhat weary Red Sox rested today after their Sunday double-header and prepared for the invasion of the Indians tomorrow, with Bob Feller due to throw in the opening game in a series of two. An afternoon game on the morrow and a night game Wednesday conclude the brief engagement before the Detroit Tigers open a three-game series on Friday.

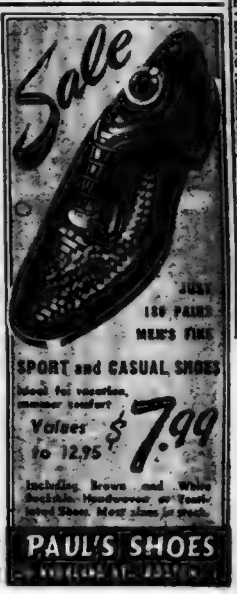
After that the Sox start another brief road jaunt with two games in Washington, then return to meet the Yankees and Senators at Fenway before going West.

Whatever flag hopes the die-hard Sox followers may entertain are likely to be centered on this next week and a half. Because if the Hose could rally strongly before starting their tour of the western cities, there might be some chance for them in the final six weeks of the season. Slim chance perhaps, but a chance nonetheless.

The Sox stand 9½ games behind the Yanks. As great as this margin appears it can be overcome. The Red Sox are hitting that ball as attested by their 9-16 hits yesterday. Their pitching is coming up for air and the general deportment of the team is on the perfect side.

One of the most gratifying features of the Red Sox over the past week has been the fact that both the White Sox and Browns pitched to Ted Williams. The tall boy responded with home run drives, just what the doctor ordered.

The Sox grabbed the first game 4-3 and the nightcap 11-2.



Braves Throw Spahn At Cards in Windup

ST. LOUIS, July 28 — Another feather was added to Billy Southworth's managerial cap on the Sabbath as the Braves, rebounding from a pair of defeats and the loss of the runner-up berth in the N. L. standings, sent Warren Spahn (13-5) against the St. Louis Cards and George Munger (9-3) in the finale of the series here today.

Sunday's victory certainly proved Southworth's genius for rallying his players at a moment when their morale seemed at its lowest pitch in the blast-furnace heat of this city.

On this road trip, the Braves had to be content with a split of their series in Chicago. But when the club dropped two in a row to the defending champions, it seemed that the slump that the local pessimists predicted was underway.

At least, it seemed that way until Southworth snapped the club out of its batting doldrums to ring up an explosive victory that could be the start of a spirited drive back.

Spahn, today's pitching choice, has been especially effective against the Red Birds. He has beaten them three times this year, the most recent triumph a shutout in Boston.

If the club can offer him a fraction of the batting support they gave Johnnie Sain for his 13th win of the season, the Braves may pull out of this series all even.

The Braves went on a batting rampage, knocking their nemises Harry Brecheen out of the box on Sunday. They continued their 18 hit assault on four other Cardinal pitchers.

By winning 1 1to 2, the Braves broke two Cardinal streaks, the six-game win streak of the Red Birds and Brecheen's string of four straight wins over the Braves.

Johnny sain chalked up his 13th win of the year. He helped his own cause by getting three hits, scoring two runs and knocking in one tally.

The win kept the braves in a third place tie with the New York Giants and one full game behind the second-place Cardinals.

Tommy Holmes hit his 6th home run, getting three hits. Buck McCormick also garnered three bingies in the wild assault.

Chew and Sullivan Take Title

Johnny Chew, Massachusetts amateur golf champion from Bear Hill, and Ernie Doherty of Woburn, yesterday held the Jaques Cup title after defeating Ted Bishop, national amateur titlist, and Dave Sullivan, southern intercollegiate champ, 2 and 1, in yesterday's final at the Country Club.

In winning the title, Chew and Doherty posted a 5-under par 66. They were 3 up at the turn but Bishop and Sullivan won the 10th and 15th to whittle down the winner's lead.

In the semi-final round, Bishop and Sullivan defeated Dick Chapman, 1940 amateur champion, and Mel Merritt of the home club, 1 up, and Chew and Doherty beat Fred Wright and Fred, Jr., of Oakley, 5 and 4.

Lowell Takes Measure Of Portland Team, 16-15

LOWELL (AP) — A five-run ninth inning gave the Lowell representatives in the New England League a 16-15 victory over the Portland Pilots in what could hardly be called a pitching duel.

The still-unnamed Lowell team used four pitchers and the Pilots three.

The winning tally was scored on a single by left-fielder Phil Monterio, who joined the club only Saturday.

Locke Again Wins Big Golf Money

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—Robert D'Arcy (Bobby) Locke of South Africa gave the American professionals another golf lesson, winning the $10,000 Columbus Open by five strokes and picking up a $2000 check which made him the year's No. 1 money winner.

The South African clouter pinned together rounds of 70, 68, 67 and 69 for a 274 total, 14 under par, to win the 72-hole medal play test by five strokes over Jimmy Demaret, the flashy dressed ex-Texan from Ojai, Cal.

In picking up his seventh victory in 12 tournaments since coming to this country April 1 for what he termed a "short visit," the South African champion boosted his earnings to $20,537.50 and Demaret, grabbing off $1400 for second place, wheeled into second place in the money-won list with a $19,181.72 total.

2 GIRL SWIMMERS SAILING FOR U. S.

NEW YORK (AP)—Two championship girl swimmers from the Netherlands—Nel Van Vleit and Mrs. Koster Van Feggelen—have sailed for New York from Rotterdam, the A.A.U. announced here.

They will compete in four meets arranged for them by the A.A.U. First competition will be at the Lido Country Club, Lido Beach, N. Y., August 9.

Hearst Final Swim Meet Closes in Burst of Glory

The Record-American-Sunday Advertiser swim meet which was held yesterday at the luxurious Cape Codder Hotel, Falmouth, produced a number of enlightening occurrences.

Clara Lamore, the Queen of the New England swimming world, was crowned for the second consecutive year as the outstanding woman athlete of the year. The presentation was made by Tam Sheehan, NEAAU president, and Capt. John Peterson, host for the swimming meet.

Joe Prata, once the undisputed king of New England swimming, lost his firm grip on the throne chair as he was dumped impressively by Bob McGrath, Winchester, in a 100-yard freestyle event.

Anne Ross, nine times a National high and low board diving champion and the only girl ever to hold all of the American springboard titles for two consecutive years, gave her first New England high diving exhibition.

Young Joe Waltmough, son of the famed Brown Univ. swim coach, outswam some of New England's most talented youngsters as he won the NEAAU Jr. 100-meter backstroke event.

And the above mentioned Miss Lamore continued to look good in the water. Clara who won the 880-yard freestyle title for the fifth year in a row on Saturday at Brockton turned in another championship feat as she won the NEAAU 400-meter freestyle event at Falmouth.

Clara is a strong candidate for National AAU honors when she treks to the Midwest late in August.

WONDERLAND REVERE

All Is Set for Sandlot Play-off at Fenway Park

By JACK CONWAY, JR.

The most competitive sandlot baseball game ever attempted in New England will be played tomorrow afternoon at Fenway Park. This will be the second annual Record-American-Sunday Advertiser New England Sandlot Baseball championships. The game will immediately follow a Red Sox-Cleveland Indians game.

The big league contest is scheduled for 2 p. m. The Sandlot game will start at 4 p. m. There will be 30 of the most talented New England sandlotters in this mighty Hearst classic.

The boys have been selected from every nook and corner of New England. The Hearst board, headed by Claude Davidson and Bill Barrett visited cities like Lawrence, Worcester, Nashua, Providence, Boston, Lynn, Pawtucket, Fall River and Somerville.

Over 2100 athletes were screened. The boys were given extensive tests by the best in New England League managers and Park Department officials. This Hearst team is truly a great representative body of the youth of New England.

The 30 boys will be split into two squads. One of these teams will be managed by Lou Boudreau, manager of the Indians. The other squad will be piloted by Joe Cronin, the manager of the Red Sox. Claude Davidson, New England League president will work with Cronin. Bill Barrett, famed Red Sox scout will work with Boudreau.

Special provision has been made by the management of these newspapers with the Red Sox front office so that the gates to Fenway will be thrown wide open after the seventh inning of the Red Sox-Cleveland game. This will enable the many sandlot fans to gain free admission at approximately 3:30. Of course the usual admission charge will prevail for the Sox-Indians game at 2 p. m.

Joe Cronin and Lou Boudreau will appear at the Sandlot banquet at the Somerset which will be held after the ball game. The dinner will begin at approximately 7:30.

The Hearst 1947 Sandlot squad is composed of some great athletes. Take Joe Ross, for instance. Joe is the lofty 6 ft., 3 in. pitcher who did some great work with the Boston Trade team. Joe lives in Roxbury and is now compiling a strike-out record with the American Legion clubs. Joe is pitching for A. L. Post 44, of which the Elliott Motors is a sponsor. Ben Levias is athletic director of the Roxbury Post.

There are other great pitchers. John Rubinowski, Lynn-Classical pitched his team to the State championship while tossing 9-0 ball. Bobbie Mulrenan, Melrose, is the son of a former major league pitcher. Bobbie was 6-1 for the season. Dick Kowalski, Lawrence, is back for the second year. Jack Bowles, Norwood, was 8-0.

The other pitchers are: Ted Trudel, Nashua; Dick Russell, Boscawen, N. H.; Pete Pendergast, Providence.

Burt Freeman, catcher, was one of the great Freeman-Rubinowski battery at Lynn. Joe Barry, Haverhill, is top catcher, and is heading for the majors. Mac Wright, Lonsdale, R. I., another catcher, is a long ball hitter. Jack Maroney, Norwood, caught Bowles all season. Joe Andrews, Fall River, is a 15-year-old catching sensation.

The first basemen are long hitters. There is Harry Agganis, Lynn Classical football and baseball standout. There is Alec Norskey, Gardner High, who had a .485 average for three years in high school. And there is Lou Gorman 6 ft., 2 in. sensation from Providence.

Not many balls will get through the Hearst infield which is composed of Charlie Haskell, Brookline; Frannie Regan, Fall River; Mike Turturro, Worcester; Walter Keaney, Dedham; John Wettlaufer, Belmont; Charlie Ruddock, Lynn; and Lou Sarkisian, Seekonk.

Art Garrett, Chelsea outfielder, has a major league arm. Gene Driscoll, center fielder from Somerville, was all-scholastic. The other outfielders are: Phil Phillip, Worcester; Gus Moran, Lynn; Bob Ercoline, Somerville; Ed Garebidian, Whitinsville, and Francis Gilbert, Dorchester.

The two most impresive ballplayers from this group will be sent on a seven-day expense-free trip to New York city for the Hearst National finals.

The board which will choose the boys is composed of Joe Cronin, Lou Boudreau, Claude Davidson and Bill Barrett.

New Record By Yankee

KATOWICE, Poland, July 28 (AP)—Bob Fitch of Sioux Falls, S. D., Saturday hurled the discus 175 feet 10 5-32 inches, the second American in three days to better the recognized world's record of 175 feet established by Adolfo Consolini of Italy in 1941.

The former University of Minnesota star, member of a nine-man team touring Europe under Amateur Athletic Union auspices, failed however, to exceed his own best performance, a mark of 180 feet 2¾ inches set at Minneapolis last year and recognized as the American record.

Participating in a four-nation meet at Oslo Friday, Fortune Gordien of the University of Minnesota, member of another AAU team touring Europe, also surpassed Consolini's record with a toss of 178.47 feet.

Dick Houden, Univ. of Wisconsin sprinter, tied the Polish record for the 100-meter dash, winning in 10.4 seconds.

Mal Whitfield of Ohio State Univ. ran the 400 meters in 49.2 seconds.

Bob Morcom of the Univ. of New Hampshire captured the high jump event with a performance of 6 feet 4 inches, and Irving Mondschein of the New York Pioneer Club won the running broad jump with 23 feet 7 inches.

Morcom also won the pole vault with a jump of 13 feet 6 inches and the 110-yard high hurdles in 14.9 seconds.

GRUSOES RETURN

SAN PEDRO, July 28 (AP)—Five fishermen who gained weight and had "a good long rest" while marooned 43 days on lonely Clipperton Island, 1400 miles south of here, were back home today.

They are Capt. William Noble, 47, of the 50-foot fishing boat Thistle which was wrecked May 19; Robert Maehle, 30, C. E. Verran, 48, G. B. Stephens, 44, and Walter T. Richards, 34.

They said that after their boat was wrecked and they made their way ashore they salvaged food, cigarettes and clothing from it; found abandoned Navy Quonset huts on the island, coffee, and even a shelf of books in an abandoned Navy LST.

N. E. Teams Battle for Play-Offs

The race in the New England League, with a bit more than a quarter of the season to go, now seems to be for fourth place, the last berth in which a team may finish to be eligible for the play-offs.

Lynn's leading Red Sox, who edged the Pawtucket's Slaters, 3-2, last night, have a 9½-game advantage over the second place Nashua Dodgers.

The Dodgers were defeated, 9-7, last night by the Manchester Giants, now in the loop's fourth berth, 10 games in back of Nashua.

The other five teams are separated only by five and a half games.

Pawtucket currently is in fourth place, a half game ahead of the Providence Chiefs. The Chiefs yesterday won both games of a double header from the seventh run Fall River Indians, 10-7 and 7-3.

The Providence club is only 4 percentage points ahead of the sixth-slotted Lowell team, which yesterday skimmed by the Portland Pilots in a 16-15 slugfest.

The Indions are in seventh place, two and a half games in rear of Lowell. The Pilots are in the cellar, only a game and a half behind the Indians. But the Pilots are 33 games out of first place.

The standings:

	Won	Lost	Pct	GB
Lynn	65	20	.765	—
Nashua	56	30	.651	9½
Manchester	44	38	.537	19½
Pawtucket	37	40	.480	24½
Providence	38	46	.422	29
Lowell	33	46	.418	29
Fall River	32	50	.390	31½
Portland	33	53	.376	33

Tonight's schedule has two doubleheaders listed, Manchester at Fall River and Lynn at Lowell. Single games are carded for Pawtucket at Nashua and Providence at Portland.

Mackerel Now Hitting Off Harvey's, Hough's Neck

By "TAP" GOODENOUGH

Mackerel are hitting in Quincy Bay! Long-awaited by local anglers, this savory, scrappy species has arrived finally in close-to-home waters, and will provide both fun and food for fishermen

Every available boat put forth from Harvey's Wharf, operated by George Elliot, during the week-end, with catches numerous. Good hauls of flounders and haddock were also reported.

Popular bait for mackerel are "shiners," which are really herring or spurling. The fish strike at feathered jigs, too, many anglers obtaining action aplenty by using fly rods or light casting rods. When a mackerel hits the lure, it usually leaps from the water—almost like a trout—then stages acrobatic antics before being boated.

Best time to fish for mackerel is about an hour after the tide starts to roll in, although they may be hooked at and hour in deep water. A likely place in Quincy Bay is near half-tide rock, off the pumping station, opposite Hough's Neck . . . Experts suggest putting catches in a burlap bag, suspended from the craft in the water.

ANGLING ANGLES: "In their haste to take striped bass, many fishermen have been overlooking some good fresh water sport," states Bill Freier, amiable owner of the Braintree Bait and Tackle Shop. "A few scattered stripers have been caught in the North River lately.

Red Sox Start Whittling Down Yankees' Big Lead

(AP)—Boston's Red Sox, who seem to have found the victory path again, will be rooting for a Detroit victory tonight. The Sox, idle today after twice whipping the St. Louis Browns yesterday, 4-3 and 11-2, would gain a half game on the league-leading New York Yankees should the Tigers beat the Bombers of the Bronx in a night game.

The Sox now are 9½ games in back of the first place Yankees.

The double triumph over the Browns ran the Red Sox victory string to seven, all compiled since the club opened a home stay last Tuesday, and one short of the club's longest winning streak of the 1947 season.

While that was going on at Fenway Park the Braves ambushed the Cardinals in St. Louis, turning on the defending world champions and clubbing them into a 10-3 defeat.

It looked bad at Fenway Park at the start of the first game. The first ball Tex Hughson pitched was driven into the left field screen for a home run by Bob Dillinger.

But the Sox got that back in the second and Ted Williams put the Sox ahead with his 100th hit of the year, a tremendously high home run—his 23rd—which landed in the center field bleachers just to the right of the 402-foot sign.

The cloul also scored Sam Mele who had singled. The Sox picked up an "insurance" run in the eighth and it was well they did as the Brownies, who had been shut out from the first through the eighth inning, scored twice in the ninth.

The second run of the inning was scored as the hustling Williams dropped a Dillinger fly. A tricky wind was blowing and the ball bounced off the heel of Ted's glove for an error. But the next batter was taken care of to end the game.

The second was a runaway with the Sox scoring in every inning in which they batted except the sixth, the only frame in which they were retired in order.

In all, they slammed 16 hits with every starting player getting at least one. Meanwhile, Dave Ferriss pitched seven-hit ball. One of the hits was Vern Stephens' 11th homer of the season, in the eighth.

Williams got his 101st hit in this contest, a double to left against the shift.

Jake Jones, who now has a nine-game hitting streak, has the most unusual triple he probably ever will be credited with in his baseball career.

In the sixth inning of the opener he dribbled one toward third. After it had rolled foul, starting St. Louis pitcher Fred Sanford threw his glove at it. Jones immediately was awarded a three-bagger.

The rule covering such an incident does not mention anything about a foul ball, and American League umpires have been instructed to enforce it literally.

The Braves, who have been taking it more often than, giving it this year in their jousts with the Cardinals, "got mad" yesterday, one day after the champions' manager had been quoted as saying that "we only have to beat the Dodgers, now."

The tribe collected 18 hits for 28 bases, driving out Harry (The Cat) Brecheen. Tommy Holmes with a single, a double and a homer, and Bob Elliott getting three for three, led the tribal attack.

They scored five times—which would have been enough to win—in the second. The only inning in which they were set down in order was the ninth.

The victory was the 13th for big Johnny Sain who helped himself to three hits in five trips.

Now in fourth place, only two percentage points behind the third place Giants, the Braves tackle the Cards again today with Lefty Warren Spahn going after his 14th victory. He will be opposed by George Munger who will be seeking his 10th decision.

Providence Chiefs Take Two, 10-7, 7-3

FALL RIVER (AP) — The Providence Chiefs swept both ends of a twin bill from the Fall River Indians, 10-7 and 7-3, by virtue of four-run outbursts in each game.

In the opener, a big eighth inning by Providence, featured by Ed Heinrich's base-clearing double broke up a tie game.

Eddie Joost Just the Man Needed to Spark Athletics

PHILADELPHIA, July 28 (AP)—Edwin David Joost, the comeback kid of the major leagues at the ripe old age of 31, has little to say about his sensational play for the Philadelphia Athletics, but he's loud and loquacious when speaking of his prowess as a seer.

And Mr. Joost can boast with rightful pride, for seriously predicting Connie Mack's A's would be a first division threat.

It was back in April shortly after the American League season opened that Joost declared he and Ferris Fain, rookie first baseman were going to 'make" Mack's ball club go.

And he was right.

This fellow Eddie Joost is no stranger to the major leagues. He played the infield with Cincinnati, 1939-42, then made a National League shift from the Reds to the Boston Braves, going on the voluntarily retired list in 1944. He came back in 1945 to play 35 games for the Braves but in 1946 found himself back in the minors with Rochester, of the International League.

Joost hit .276, clouted 19 home runs and batted in 101 runs for Rochester last year and this season was back in the majors via a $10,000 purchase by the Old Sage of Shibe Park.

Joost reported to the A's training base at West Palm Beach, Fla., and Mack took one look and confidently announced," the A's have their best shortstop since Joe Boley played for my last pennant winners."

Joost then proceeded to prove him right.

His play at shortstop has bolstered a position in the A's infield notoriously weak for more than a decade. Joost goes to both his left and right to make plays that Athletic pitchers in recent years could see only when the opposition was in the field.

Additionally he was provided a spark that seems to have inflamed an entire team.

Joost's inestimable value to the A's was demonstrated when the beloved shortstop was called home to his sick wife's bedside in Burlingame, Calif., recently.

Mack was forced to shift his infield for a night game against St. Louis and in that game the A's looked like the cellar dwellers of yesteryear as they kicked the ball around and went down to one of their most humiliating defeats.

Mack wired Joost to fly back in time for the next night's game and, with Eddie again in the lineup playing his usual polished game, the A's again were an alert, heads up, winning team.

While Joost's batting average is only .212, the likable infielder has batted in 39 runs and smashed eight home runs, three in the last four games.

Last week against Cleveland, Indians manager Lou Boudreau ordered outfielder Barney McCosky passed purposely to get to Joost with two out and one on in the seventh inning of the night game. So Joost,lhit the first ball tossed by Don Black into the stands for a home run.

He hit another circuit clout to help the Macks whip Detroit's Dizzy Trout Friday, and yesterday he broke up a pitchers' duel between the A's Dick Fowler and Al Benton, Detroit, with a blast to the roof of the left-field stands.

Unwanted

Asserting that the struggle to survive was too much, Amos Turpin, 37, of Casey County, Ky., offered seven of these nine children for adoption. The tenant farmer insisted that they should have good homes and education. Next day he was placed under arrest, charged with beating one of the youngsters.
